TEDIOUS TASK TO SELECT HICKMAN JURY

LEGION COMMANDERS BEING HONORED HERE

Camera Men and Alienists to Row at Hickman Trial

(Special To The News)

BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., Jan. 26.—This murderer out here, Hickman, confesses, so that means a long drawn out trial.

It's going to be a fight to finish between alienists and the photographers.

American murder procedure is about as follows:

Fool enough to commit crime, dumb enough to get caught, smart enough to prove you're crazy when you committed it, and fortunate enough to show you was too sane to hang.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

Aliquippa and Woodlawn voters have passed favorably on the matter of uniting the two boroughs as one city. This will make by far the largest city in Beaver county. It's about time that New Castle gave consideration to annexation of some of its populous suburbs, Pa Newc opines.

Tonight is class night for the members of the senior class of the New Castle high school in the first mid-year graduation week ceremonies. The program will be presented at the senior high school auditorium.

With the start of the second semester in the New Castle public schools next week, teaching of the German language will be resumed. In Erie, Akron, and other cities, the matter of restoring teaching of German is now being considered.

It's about time that someone in New Castle or Lawrence county caught sight of the missing Smith College girl. She's been reported at most every other city east of Chicago.

The Lehigh Portland Cement Company plant in this city that was ordered to resume operations a few days ago, is about ready for the actual resumption of activities. Work of preparing has been rushed since the orders were received by Superintendent Kleckner.

Evidently the golf bug has not yet bitten the citizens of New Castle, or else they do their practicing at home. For not one has reported to the practice green at the Y. M. C. The Neshannock is no longer completely frozen over. A channel, although narrow, now lets the water through, and ice along the banks is between two and three feet thick.

Pa Newc regrets that Monday passed without any mention being made of the fact that it was Chinese New Years. But it will be remembered that the Chinese laundries were closed, while the Orientals celebrated. However, they do not celebrate their New Years in the manner of the West. No, for them, the new year is a time to pay old debts—if they have the money.

And these ice cream trucks that float about the city these days, piled high with cracked ice, remind one of the essence or the quintessence of futility.

A new club has been started by the younger Benedicts of the city, and it is claimed that it is a Tuesday Evening Bridge Club. The purpose, so we are told, is to wile away a few hours when the good wives shuffle the pasteboards for blood and prizes. The men also have prizes, and if

National And State Leaders Legion Guests

Approximately 1,000 To Gather At Legion Banquet Tonight

COMMANDERS TO BE HONORED

National Commander Spafford And State Commander Hollenback Here

With few short of 1,000 plates reserved, the banquet to National Commander Edward E. Spafford and State Commander Edwin E. Hollenback tonight in the Scottish Rite Cathedral promises to be the largest ex-service activity ever carried out here, and one of the outstanding civic achievements of several years.

For several weeks the men of Perry S. Gaston Post, No. 343, American Legion, have been busy planning the banquet for tonight and the enthusiasm generated in the local post spread to the other posts of the 26th district, and some 475 Legionnaires and their guests will be in from Beaver, Butler, Mercer, Venango and Crawford counties and from Mahoning county in Ohio.

Unusual Honor

Entertaining the national commander is an honor coveted by every post of the American Legion in the United States. Obviously it is impossible for him to visit them all in the short space of 12 months, and it then becomes necessary to visit only those posts which have shown a lively interest in Legion affairs.

Perry S. Gaston Post is known in Legion circles as a live post, and the decision to visit it was made by the national commander after State Commander Edwin E. Hollenback had urged him to do so. When it became known that Commander Spafford would come here, District Deputy Pat J. Dempsey suggested to the post commander, A. Edward Russell, that it be made a district affair and the deputies for Beaver county and But-

POLICE SHOOT BANDIT DURING STREET BATTLE

(International News Service)

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 26.—In a running gun battle with police, George Westcott, reputed Detroit bandit, was killed here early today.

Westcott, according to police, entered a soft drink parlor operated by John Veragzn, drew a pistol and obtained $60 from Veragzn and $40 from four customers in the place. As he was leaving, the bandit encountered Patrolmen John Wiley and Ed Szeman.

He eluded the policemen and ran. About a dozen shots were fired during the ensuing chase before Westcott was struck in the abdomen. He died enroute to a hospital after telling police his name. He said his home was in Detroit.

WORST BLIZZARD OF WINTER HAS PART OF CANADA IN GRIP

(International News Service)

MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 26.—With blizzard conditions whipped into a fury by a whirligig gale that sends huge drifts of snow twisting in mountain-high geysers, eastern Canada today was in the grip of the winter's worst storm. Lower temperatures and higher gales are forecast by the weather bureau.

Quebec City, teeming with American tourists for winter sports, is literally snowed under in the teeth of a gale that renders travel on the streets almost impossible and has disrupted trolley and motor transport. Trains east of Montreal and in the Quebec areas were in several cases snowed in for hours and had to be dug and plowed out before proceeding to their destinations.

Sixty Chickens Taken By Thieves

Fleming And State Police Investigate Thefts At Princeton

WILLING TO ANSWER CALLS AT ANY TIME

For the second time within 48 hours thieves robbed the farm of W. G. Myers of 60 chickens. The farm is situated beyond Princeton, Butler highway. Tuesday night the thieves got 20 chickens and last night stole 40 more.

Early this morning as soon as he received the report County Detective William Fleming and Sate Policeman Munce went to Princeton for the purpose of trying to secure a clue by which the thieves may be apprehended.

According to Fleming the thieves recently have robbed several rural residents of numerous fowls and very few of the cases have been reported imediately to the county detective. He stated today that any time persons residing in the country want him and the state police they can call him day or night at his office or residence.

Not so long ago a number of young men were arrested through the cooperation of Lawrence County authorities and State Police and Fleming stated today that State Police located here and he will be only too willing to investigate immediately any violation of the law.

"It is only by getting on the scene of the robbery or violation of any other law immediately after the breach that we can make good headway and the citizen has a right to call me at home or at the office during the day or night.

"I am just as anxious as they are to clear Lawrence county of every possible criminal. Mr. Myers notified us of the theft and we have already made an investigation. However, I learned also that other people have had chickens stolen," he said.

It is believed that the persons who steal large numbers of chickens sell them in different markets generally outside New Castle and if reports are sent in immediately the county can lay plans whereby persons disposing of such can be trapped quickly.

Slate Blown From Court House Roof

County commissioners report that during the recent high winds many slate have been blown off the courthouse, making it dangerous for those who happen to be in the vicinity, either on the courthouse grounds or on the street, as some of the slate have been blown clear over on Court street. It has been too cold to have repairs made, but it will be attended to as soon as possible.

Missing College Girl Mystery Is As Yet Unsolved

Authorities Begin To Fear No Trace Of Miss Smith Will Ever Be Found

FAMOUS CASES OF SIMILARITY RECALLED

Dorothy Arnold Case Is One Which Has Baffled For 19 Years

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Failure of the authorities to find a definite trace of the missing Frances St. John Smith, 18-year-old college girl, strengthened the belief today that her disappearance will be recorded in police annals as another of the long series of "unsolved mysteries"—such as the vanishing 18 years ago of another New York heiress, Dorothy Arnold, and the more recent disappearance of Alice Corbett, a junior in Smith College.

Clues Worthless

Scores of clues, popping up in this country and abroad, have been run down by the police since Miss Smith was last seen on the campus of Smith College at Northampton, Mass., on the afternoon of January 13, and all of them have proved to be of no value in locating her whereabouts. Letters are pouring into the home of her

Search Ruins Of York Springs Home For Fire Victims

Mother And Three Children Perish In Fire As Home Is Destroyed; One Body Recovered

(International News Service)

YORK, Pa., Jan. 26.—Firemen today searched the ruins of the home of A. B. C. Williams, York Springs rural mail carrier, for the bodies of his wife and two of the three children who were burned to death when fire destroyed their brick dwelling at York Springs during the night.

Two other children escaped and the body of a third was recovered by the father early today.

The mother, Wesley, 6, Ethel, 3, and an eighteen-months old baby perished in the fire, caused when a kerosene lamp the mother was filling exploded. The flames, fanned by a high wind, rapidly spread through the structure, and when volunteer firemen and the father arrived the home was a roaring fire trap.

Nevertheless, the father, who had gone to a York Springs garage, dashed into the building, and retrieved the body of Ethel. He was prevented from returning for the others by volunteer firemen.

Ruth, 9, escaped from the flames and called neighbors, who summoned firemen. Ralph, 13, also escaped.

Reed Incensed By Dismissal Of Wilson Contest

Missouri Senator To Ask Senate Committee Grant New Hearing To Wilson

VARE STATUS IS STILL UNCHANGED

Wilson Has 25 Days In Which To File Appeal; Reed Plans Action

By MAURITZ A. HALLGREN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The senate elections committee today decided to reconsider its action in dismissing the contest of William B. Wilson, Democrat, for the seat of Senator-elect William S. Vare (R) of Pennsylvania.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Senator Reed (D) of Missouri was ready today to appeal to the Senate to reverse the action of the Senate elections committee in dismissing the contest filed by William B. Wilson, Democrat, against Senator-elect William S. Vare (R) of Pennsylvania.

The original Wilson complaint was dismissed on a straight party vote, when the committee decided it was "insufficient to require answer or trial." The committee gave Wilson 25 days in which to file a new contest, after declaring he would have to state "specifically what wrongs and illegal acts" were committed by Vare in the 1926 senatorial race.

Must Pass in Senate.

The senate, however, must pass finally on the case.

The committee's action, while robbing Wilson of a chance for a recount of the ballots cast in the Pennsylvania election—unless the senate reverses the decision—did not change Vare's status as a senator-elect. The Philadelphian must still face the fight to bar him because of excessive expenditures in his primary campaign and every indication points to his exclusion when the senate finally votes on this question.

One of the peculiar effects of the committee's action was that both sides claimed defeat. It was true that Vare won when Wilson's contest was dismissed but it was equally true that Vare lost when Wilson was given 25 days to file a new contest.

Under the Pennsylvania law, no senatorial vacancy can be filled at the City Official's Home In Chicago Bomb Damaged

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Authorities today sought the terrorists who exploded a bomb under the home of Charles C. Fitzmorris, chief of police under the old Thompson administration, and now city comptroller.

The two-story residence was badly damaged, but Mr. Fitzmorris and his family escaped uninjured. The blast was set off a few minutes past midnight as the members of the family were retiring.

The detonation could be heard for many blocks and caused consternation in the fashionable Hyde Park residential district. Windows of the Windermere hotel, across from the Fitzmorris home, were shattered.

Comptroller Fitzmorris was at a loss to account for the bombing motive. It was his guess that gangsters whose enmity he had incurred during his regime as chief of police were responsible.

Shortly after the Fitzmorris bomb was exploded another bomb was set off in a building adjoining the home of William H. Reid, an ex-officio member of Mayor Thompson's cabinet.

Police are confident the bomb was intended for the Reid home.

Great Damage In Coast Storm

New York Reports Worst Gale Along Coast In 12 Years

SEVENTY-TWO-MILE GALE AT ONE TIME

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Frigid weather prevailed along the north Atlantic seaboard today in the wake of the terrific gale—the greatest in twelve years—which yesterday roared over New York and other cities, tearing off cornices, smashing plate glass windows, flipping automobiles over on their sides, wrecking property and leaving scores injured.

Several deaths, directly attributable to the storm, were reported in various parts of the east. Railroad traffic was slowly returning to a normal schedule this morning and the vicious gale itself has passed out to sea in a northeasterly direction.

New England was particularly hard hit. Heavy property damage was done in many cities of Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut.

An amusement park was wrecked by the wind at Fall River, Mass.

In New York city the gale rose screamingly to a seventy-two mile an hour pace, battering down signs, wrecking lofty tanks, damaging high buildings and raising havoc with craft in the harbor. Veterans along the river front said they could recall nothing like it in years.

Telegraph wires along the Atlantic seaboard and inland, too, were down and scores of linemen were engaged in the work of restoring them today.

The pressure of the wind died down late last night and at the same time the temperature began to fall. Shortly before noon today the mercury was a notch or two higher than twenty degrees above zero and the weather bureau predicted a further drop of the mercury.

Property damage will run up into the thousands of dollars—how high was a matter of conjecture. In New York alone some estimates placed it at $200,000.

Jury Selection In Hickman Case Will Be Battle

Seek "Super-Intellectual" Jury List For Hearing Of Evidence

NEW TRIAL JUDGE GETS APPOINTMENT

Selection Of Jurors To Try Youthful Killer Will Take Week, Is Indication

By ARTHUR L. MAREK
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 26.—A "super-intellectual" jury to sit in judgment on William Edward Hickman for the kidnaping and murder of 12-year-old Marion Parker will be sought by the defense.

This was revealed as the trial entered its second day with opposing counsel prepared to battle over the selection of a jury.

"We will challenge any prospective juror who is not mentally equipped clearly to understand pathological and psychological phases involved in an insanity defense", declared defense counsel Richard Cantillon.

New Trial Judge.

The assignment of Judge J. J. Trabucco to preside over the hearing paved the way for the resumption of the trial today and untangled the legal snarl brought about yesterday when Superior Judge Carlos S. Hardy disqualified himself.

Judge Ha[illegible] was charged with prejudice in an affidavit submitted by Jerome Walsh of Kansas City, chief counsel for Hickman.

In announcing that he would insist upon a highly intelligent jury, Associate Defense Attorney Cantillon explained that this step was made necessary by Hickman's plea of "not guilty by reason of insanity."

Life At Stake.

The life of Hickman, attorneys pointed out, depends upon the jury's decision on the question of whether the youth was sane or insane at the time he kidnaped and killed the Parker girl.

This is the only issue at stake under a new California statute which provides for an insanity defense.

For this reason, Cantillon said, the defense wants a jury capable of understanding the technical explanations of alienists who will be called as defense witnesses in an attempt to prove their contention of Hickman's unbalanced mental condition.

To combat the insanity defense, District Attorney Asa Keyes has marshalled seven alienists and psychiatrists who have examined and observed Hickman and who will testify that he is now sane and was sane at the time of the crime.

Start Jury Selection.

Court attaches predicted today that the selection of the jury would not be completed until early next week. This, they said, would delay important testimony until the latter part of next week.

Meanwhile, a venir of 60, almost

If I were writing a lay to her, she of the shining eyes, I'd think of the moon on a silver lake, or the sheen of the starry skies; or the deep recesses of limpid pools, where mystery lies enshrined, where the lush green willows grow thick and full and the grasses are intertwined. And all of these would but merely start the train of my rhyming thought, if I were writing a lay to her, but it happens today I'm not. I'm trying to find me a stock of words that will rhyme and will show some sense, for on Saturday, for these lays of mine, I expect some recompense. So the shining eyes must be passed a bit, for its not that kind of a lay, for this verse must go out to the linotype, its twenty-four today.

In connection with the initiation, the Grand Master Builder, gave a very interesting and instructive address to the members of the chapter and especially to those members of the class admitted to membership. His address was one of the best ever heard here and was thoroughly enjoyed by those so fortunate as to hear him.

Other making addresses were made by William H. Dunlap, deputy grand master builder for the state of Pennsylvania, Fred L. Rentz, deputy grand master builder for Lawrence county and Rev. S. [illegible]

This would mean that Vare's seat would have to be vacated by February 23 or he would be barred from running for re-election this year. In fact, it was said he could not run until November, 1930, if he failed to enter the primary. The 25-day extension given Wilson was said to eliminate all chance of Vare entering the April primary.

Reed Incensed.

The Democrats on the committee, led by Reed, however, were incensed over what they characterized as a "verdict without a trial" They maintained that the committee should have heard evidence of fraud and corruption before dismissing the complaint. Reed even threatened to recount ballots, now held by his slush fund committee—which were seized in Philadelphia and Allegheny counties—unless the senate reverses the elections committee.

"I'm going to the floor with this case," said Reed. "I'm going to get a hearing on Wilson's contest."

Hearing Being Held On Mulberry Grading

Dissatisfaction over the grading of Mulberry street is being aired before the viewers, Clarence Patterson, W. Leslie Wilson and A. Clyde Shoaff, at the courthouse today.

The courtroom was well filled this morning by owners of property abutting on the street. It is claimed that the grade is such that the people on the east side of the street cannot get into their property, and that water runs into cellars on the south side of the street. A storm sewer was constructed, but it does not appear to be taking care of the situation.

Lighting and telephone service was crippled in many districts. A number of barges were swept ashore along the coast. It was estimated that the wind attained a maximum velocity of 88 miles an hour.

MISSING COLLEGE GIRL MYSTERY IS AS YET UNSOLVED

parents here, many of them, it is believed, from persons who never saw the girl. Most of them contain "tips".

Miss Smith's strange disappearance served to recall the vanishing of Dorothy Arnold. That case, which stirred the entire world, never has been solved, although clues were run down in every hemisphere.

Recall Old Case

Dorothy Arnold was the daughter of a wealthy importer. She left her home shortly before noon on December 12, 1910. She was 25 years old. She walked to Brentano's book store and was seen later in the day on Fifth avenue. Since that time no tangible clue has been found to her whereabouts.

Her father devoted the 12 remaining years of his life searching for his daughter. He spent nearly one-third of his fortune in the quest. He died leaving $600,000. Miss Arnold's former classmates at Bryn Mawr also helped in the search, as did many individuals. Six days after her disappearance letters were found in her room which indicated a strong affection between her and George S. Griscom Jr., 40 years old, then in Italy. Mr. Arnold journeyed to Italy to see Griscom, who denied he knew anything about Dorothy's disappearance.

The last of the countless clues concerning Dorothy came from the Pacific coast two years ago. Mrs. Virginia Lee Cookson, an author, informed the police of Calexico, Cal., that she had found the missing girl in a Chinese opium den in Mexicali, Mexico, just across the barbed wire fence border line. It was never established, however, that the woman Mrs. Cookson saw was really Dorothy Arnold.

Miss Alice Corbett's disappearance presented a problem that was no less puzzling to the authorities. She vanished on November 13, 1923, after a quarrel with her sweetheart, Thomas E. Stirling, a student at Amherst. She was the very attractive daughter of James H. Corbett of Utica, N. Y.

The authorities instituted a widespread search for Miss Corbett. Clues were numerous, just as they are now in the case of Frances St. John Smith. But only recently Miss Corbett's father withdrew his offer of a $1,000 reward for information concerning her whereabouts, stating that he felt that further search was "almost hopeless".

evenly divided between men and women, awaited their call to the jury box.

Every effort will be made by the prosecution to expedite the trial, it was said at the district attorney's office.

Judge Hardy, in vacating the bench, emphasized that Hickman will be tried speedily. He said:

"While I do not admit, but do deny that I am in anyway biased or prejudiced against the defendant, and to avoid the delay that may be occasioned by a protracted hearing with reference to my qualifications, and in order that the case may be heard, tried and determined with the least possible delay, I do hereby consent that the case be tried by another judge."

Superior Judge J. J. Trabucco, Judge Hardy's successor, was appointed to try the case by Judge Victor McLucas, presiding judge of the Los Angeles county superior court, who had been instructed to make the assignment by Chief Justice William H. Waste of the California supreme court.

The appointment of Judge Trabucco, whose jurisdiction is in Mariposa county, followed a long distance telephone conversation between Judge McLucas in Los Angeles and Justice Waste in San Francisco.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 26.—William Edward Hickman will take the witness stand in his own behalf if permitted by his attorneys.

Just before he entered court today the kidnaper-slayer of Marion Parker reiterated his desire to be a witness for himself.

"And when I get up there are start talking, I'll tell plenty," he boasted.

"One thing I'm going to tell that I never told before is about the morning after I delivered the girls's body to her father, the morning the police came to my apartment, looked me over and then went away without arresting me.

"I had taken the $1,500 in gold notes, the ransom money which everybody was looking for by the serial numbers, and stuffed it up behind the ironing board in my apartment."

Booze Traffic Here Is Slowing Down

Practically No Booze Running Into Or Through County

CONSISTENT WORK BRINGING RESULTS

Traffic in booze is almost at a standstill in Lawrence county, and it its practically certain that there is less moonshine for sale here than at any time since anti-prohibition days, said Chief of County Detectives William Fleming today.

"Every day and night investigators from the county detective's office comb the various highways and byways, and in fact any place where it is suspected that persons may attempt to sell or 'run booze', and they report that the traffic is almost at a standstill," said Fleming.

"Persons who had been prone to flirt with arrest have abandoned selling liquor, as under the present system it is almost impossible for them to 'get by' for any length of time, and no one wants to be a bootlegger unless he can make a big haul quick."

Fleming says that one of the reasons why bootleggers are not attempting to sneak truckloads into the county is due to the fact that there is practically no sale, due to industrial conditions.

The bootleggers realize this and do not want to take a big chance for small returns, and this, coupled to the patrol system and investigations carried on consistently, according to Fleming, has Lawrence county in practically its driest state in years.

PLEASANT RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Shoulders droop under weight of years. Young, yet beauty has fled. Cheeks are sallow and drawn. Unsightly pimples. Keep your system clean and you keep the beauty of youth. Its energy. Its irresistible charm. Then life is not a failure.

Clogged bowels and inactive liver cause poisons to seep through the system. Health vanishes and with it beauty and energy. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets will save you from this dark hour. For 20 years they have been prescribed in place of calomel to men and women seeking health and freedom from constipation. They act easily and smoothly. No dangerous griping. Take nightly before retiring. Results will amaze you.

Thousands of men and women would never be without Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. Know them by their olive color. 15c, 30, 60c.

UNION LABEL

WELCOME; LEGIONAIRRES!

FOR one evening, New Castle is the center of American Legion activities when tonight the National Commander Edward E. Spafford and the State Commander Edwin E. Hollenback are the guests of honor in the Scottish Rite Cathedral.

New Castle is honored in the presence of these two leaders. Since its organization in 1919, the American Legion has become more and more of a factor in the civic life of the nation. Here in New Castle Perry S. Gaston Post has developed with the years until today the men who make up its membership are numbered among the citizens of this community who do things.

The privilege of entertaining the national and state leaders of the Legion is one of which any city no matter the size can be proud. Alive to the unusual honor accorded New Castle, reservations for seats for tonight show just under 1000 and the seat sale had to be discontinued several days ago.

Commander Spafford and Commander Hollenback are leaders in a mighty peace time army, an army which more and more must come to fight the battles of peace with the same vigor it fought the battles of war in 1917-18. With such men at its head the American Legion can go forward with confidence and pride.

New Castle welcomes them, welcomes the visiting Legionairres and their guests and hopes that the visit of the national and state commanders to this city will become an annual affair.

ON TRAIL OF COMMON COLD

A GENEROUS grant of money has been made to experts at Johns Hopkins University to carry on an organized and scientific investigation of the origin, nature and possible cure of the common cold, long the cause of much human suffering in all lands. It is an activity of general interest and, if successful, the advantage will be to humanity.

For years medical writers and speakers have been urging greater care on the part of individuals that they may not contract colds. Methods of prevention have been suggested, but not much has been accomplished. In the same connection medical authorities have warned men and women of dangers one faces in suffering with cold, because of the many serious ailments that may follow. Many so-called remedies for cold have been offered the public, the homely remedies handed down from pioneer days, the remedies sent out by specialists and manufacturers. Some of these have merit, but the safest method is to call a physician and follow his instructions.

The Chemical Foundation has felt justified, after long study of the situation, in granting the funds for a five-year campaign in the work of trying to learn the cause, possibly the cure, of the common cold. Medical and industrial statistics prove enormous losses are caused by colds each year as men and women are incapacitated from their usual duties. That loss the Foundation hopes to reduce or prevent in the years to come.

THE NATION'S RESPONSIBILITY

MANY Americans have arrived at the conclusion that in the Pan-American situation the nation deserving the most sympathy is the United States. Yet it is obvious that of all the republics in the three Americas it is asking the least sympathy.

Warfare between United States marines and Nicaraguan revolutionists—or bandits if you choose—has brought against this government charges of imperialism, of denying to the Nicaraguans the democratic right of political self-determination, and of robbing the little Central American republic of her natural resources.

But before the marines arrived in Nicaragua the Washington administration was rebuked for failure to protect Americans and American interests and to aid the better elements in Nicaragua in their long fight for political self-determination. From America's critics, both before and after the marine invasion, one gets the impression that Nicaraguan bandits were metamorphosed into liberty-loving patriots by the sending of United States marines against them.

Neither the American people nor their government are blind to this country's grave responsibility, even though the present situation is in nowise a crisis. The Western Hemisphere does not want to be divided, as Europe is, by international distrust, jealousies and hatred, and it is fully cognizant that the seeds are here, waiting to be cultivated by diplomatic bungling and jingoism.

AN OLD HABIT

AS AN increasing number of critics of the present generation are putting it, America, along with the rest of the world, is on the decline, slipping from old virtues into new vices. The tendency to compare the present unfavorably with the past is an old one.

Doubtless some years hence men now young will be proclaiming the superior virtues of this day and comparing the men present unfavorably with the time of their youth. Therefore the world does not take such criticism seriously. For it knows that as a rule one generation is little, if any, better or worse than the one preceding or following.

A draft is an ill wind that blows nobody good.

Tragedy does much of its stalking now on four pneumatic wheels.

Perhaps time really is money. Anyway, it is all some men spend.

Whether the knock of opportunity is a boost depends on the individual.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 5:11. Sun rises tomorrow 7:13.

The difference between being thrifty and stingy is that being stingy is that a stingy man never reaches for a restaurant check and the thrifty man reaches for it very slowly.

We notice a lot of glaring posters stuck on the telegram poles on Highland avenue up in the finger bowl part advertising a dance in Umbert Hall on Division street. It states that the biggest accordion from New York will appear here for the first time and the tickets for men are 50 cents and ladies 25 cents. This is invading the North Hill all right, for business.

Verily we wonder if we ever get able to reduce. Expenses, crime, drinking, waste, waists?

There was a greater increase in the amount of life insurance taken out in 1926 than in the year previous. About eighty-seven billion dollars worth of life insurance now is in force. A lot of birds are worth a lot more dead than living—at least to their heirs.

A man born of poor Italian parents 57 years ago has just given the University of California a million and a half real American dollars to boost the agricultural interests of California. This is a great country for people who use their heads for other purposes than wearing their hats on.

That author who says nature provides weapons only for animals that face the enemy doesn't know much about mules.

If a man is punished by giving him the punishment he wants it is no punishment at all. It is what he gets and not what he wants is what should make him feel glad he is living.

If the colored folks ever get to the vote according to law and to how they are entitled to vote the United States senate will have a different kind of representation from the south and maybe it will be just about as good for the country as it is now. Some of those birds from the south seem to went to dictate about everything that is going on in the senate.

Pittsburgh is figuring on building a town hall that will cost about six million dollars. That sounds provincial enough until the amount of money needed is mentioned. A town hall is a good thing for any city no matter how big ,if it is a getting together place like it used to be in the old days.

A great many of the moving picture studios in Hollywood are shutting down on account of the slowing up of the business. One would think a moving picture factory would be running all the time and day and night.

Leaving an automobile stand on the street about all the time, as some patriots do, would not be so bad if they did not select the most dangerous places to park them. It's a wonder more accidents do not happen on this account.

New Castle girls may not like to be shocked, but anyway they won't go out with anything but live wires.

In this column not long ago we refered to "A very pretty girl" residing on the Fall Tract. Just five girls have written to me asking if she was the pretty girl we had in mind. They were.

Many a New Castle family eats in the kitchen for fear there will be signs between meals of having eaten in the dining room.

The Chinese are celebrating their New Year's this entire week and one of the things all Chinese do during this period of the year is to pay up all their old debts. The Chinese have some mighty fine traits others might imitate.

There are always a lot of people who can tell the kind of government they do not want without giving an accurate description of a kind that would be practical.

Some girls will not buy cigarettes. They get their boy friends to buy them for them.

A Pittsburgh man's place was raided by revenue officers and they found a 200-gallon still, 65 gallons of moonshine and six hundred bottles of beer in the place. The man claimed some one had slipped all this stuff into his house and that it was not his. Oh, wham de doodle wham!

Who remembers when ladies wore braid on the bottom of their skirts to protect them from their shoe tips.

A prudish lady friend of ours told us yesterday that there would be fewer prodigal sons if daughters displayed less fatted calf.

An old fogy is a man who thinks a face should not be painted any oftener than a house.

Show This One to the Wife and Then Run.

Show this one to the wife and then run. "A passenger in an automobile should sit still and say nothing, because any other course is fraught with danger," is the view of Supreme Court Judge Curtiss of Connecticut in a recent written opinion handed down in a case.

"Interference by laying hold of an operating lever or by exclamation, or even by direction or inquiry is generally to be depreciated as in the long run the greater safety lies in letting the driver alone."

However it is not expected that the opinion of the Connecticut state supreme court judge is liable to change the habits of the rear seat drivers, especially the feminine ones.

Headline reads:
"ADULT EDUCATION."
Leave that to the children, they are taking care of it nicely, thank you.

"Women won't dress well to please men," asserts Contributor A. S. "Ah, no; merely to annoy other women."

Who remembers when we men wore brown derbies, with air holes on each side?

Who remembers the good old days when we kids asked the lucky fellow with the apple if we could have the core?

In these days of jazz, it is almost a pleasure to look back on the old days when the band played "All Coons Look Alike to Me" or the "Georgia Camp Meeting," and they danced the cakewalk.

Hints and Dints: Our city council meeting have been particularly dull lately—not like the good old days when they used to scrap at every meeting. I suggest that somebody start a fight now and then, and make the minutes of the previous meeting worth being read.

TAXPAYER.

A pretty quotation contributed by Van:
"Men are oaks.
Women are vines.
"Children are flowers.

Hints and Dints: I got a real kick out of the following story at a story telling bee up at my house the other night, so am passing it along to you:

"Deacon White," said Parson Jackson, softly, "will you lead us in prayer?"

There was no answer.

"Deacon White," this time in a little louder voice, "will you lead?"

Still no response. Evidently the deacon was slumbering Parson Jackson made a third appeal and raised his voice to a high pitch that succeeded in arousing the drowsy man.

"Deacon White, will you lead?"

"The deacon, in bewilderment, rubbed his heavy eyes and blurted: "Lead yourself—I just dealth!"

JOHN

The old lady came out of a half doze as the train approached a station. "Where are we, Bobby?" she asked.

"I don't know, grandma."

"But didn't the conductor call out something just now?"

"No grandma; he just stuck his head inside the door and sneezed."

"Bobby, she exclaimed, "quickly help me with these things! This is Oshkosh."

Dominating personality: Highbrow way of saying "bad manners."

Example of free government: "I'd arrest that fool driver," said the cop, "if he wasn't the Mayor's son."

Know-it-all people get just as much love as anybody else, but most of it is home-made.

Recipe for making an ass of yourself: First, let your wife go away for a week.

It is estimated that 46,885 of India's 300 million population would know the difference if the land wasn't bossed by Britain.

Any other industry would need as much relief as farming does if it depended on politics for its salvation.

Example of philosophy: "Oh, well; a new car would look just as shoddy as my old one in three months."

The world never yet has failed to heed a reformer with a brilliant mind and a character untarnished by sin

If there's no other way to keep a bore from hanging round, you might try lending him a little money.

AMERICANISM: Hoping the two parties will nominate men pleasing to Wall street, so we'll keep on having good times.

Proof that you can trust the common people lies in the fact that no other kind gets elected, and yet look how great the country is.

It might be worse. Suppose Government affairs were run by young intellectuals who know just how it should be done.

If America had held to the belief that none but degenerate Huns would use the submarines, there wouldn't have been an S-4.

The Senate gains more and more power as the years pass. You see, the United States never have had a "Mc" in the President's chair.

Sandino is cruel. The awful thing. And American soldiers have always been so gentle and thoughtful of the enemy's comfort.

Wouldn't it be simpler to establish a definite financial standard of innocence and not waste time trying rich men?

Nearly all of the world's people are bandits and rebels. Anyway, they would seem that way if Uncle Sam landed troops to boss them.

The Flivver Flies.

The Dollar Rules.

Diligent in Business.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1928, by N. Y. American, Inc.)

At 7:15 Tuesday morning, Harry Brooks, air pilot, shook hands with Henry Ford and William B. Mayo, Ford's chief engineer, and climbed into the air in a tiny flying machine that Detroit calls "Ford's Flying Flivver."

Brooks carried forty-eight gallons of gasoline, one quart of drinking water, no food, and started to fly from Detroit to Miami, non-stop, in fourteen hours.

A little after 4 p. m. he was forced down in a suburb of Asheville, N. C., more than half the distance from Detroit to Miami, by heavy winds and ice forming on the wings.

In England the tiny planes called "moths", with a wing spread of about 20 feet, go two hundred miles an hour, and are in regular use.

From Detroit to Miami in one day, for $9.50 worth of gasoline would make intelligent railroad men thoughtful.

Mr. Ford has been making flying flivvers for some time, but had not put them on the market, probably, for fear that young people would be tempted to kill themselves. He sells his big, all-metal three-engine planes which, according to Mr. Jackson, vice president of the Standard Oil of Indiana, are as safe as Pullman cars.

Reginald M'Kenna, British banker, says the whole world is on a dollar basis. Gold is "only the nominal basis of currency."

"The buying power of the dollar really regulates money and prices."

A gentleman who has read but hasn't taken the writer's advice about not selling things short, asked yesterday: "What makes you write that?"

To begin with, a dollar is worth sixty cents now, as compared with 1914. Anything that was intrinsically worth a dollar fourteen years ago is worth a dollar and eighty cents now.

Don't sell short, but don't gamble, either.

John D. Rockefeller, eighty-eight years old, and wise beyond that age, reduces his golf game from eight holes to six holes. "Eight holes are too much for a man of my age," says he, "and, anyhow, it's better to be a good golfer for six holes than a bad golfer for eight holes."

To realize your age and physical limitations is the secret of long life.

Some man should be employed to write Mr. Rockefeller's mental biography. Dr. Ludwig, who wrote an excellent life of Napoleon, might do it. Ostrogorski, the Russion, who wrote the book on democracy could do it well. Mr. Lorimer, of the Saturday Evening Post, could do it even better, but is probably too busy.

To tell the mental history of one of the world's most successful men would be useful.

"Seest thou a man diligent in his business, he shall stand before kings."—The Bible.

Seest thou a man diligent in the chain store business, he shall stand among kings of money.

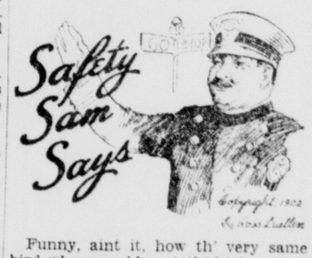

The Woolworth stores earned more than $35,000,000 last year. Ten cents isn't much, five cents seems little. But twenty nickels made one dollar. If you had all the copper pennies in the United States you would be worth $50,000,000.

Talcott Williams, good newspaper man, who managed Josph Pulitzer's School of Journalism, is dead, and probably, answering Joseph Pulitzer's questions, in Heaven.

No matter what Professor Williams tells him, Joseph Pulitzer will not be satisfied. He always was dissatisfied. That's why he succeeded. If rich men could leave such dissatisfaction to their sons, instead of leaving them money, the sons would do better.

"Oh, nothing; just a little cold in the head." You have often heard your sniffing friend say that. Learn now, from authority that colds in the head cost this country in lost time, doctors' bills, etc., one thousand five hundred million dollars a year.

Colds weaken the body's power to resist disease and cause probably one-third of all deaths. There is no such thing as a "little" cold.

Funny, aint it, how th' very same bird who grumbles at th' high cost o' life insurance, goes an' takes all sorts o' fool chances!

In Day's News

Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois and now considered a prominent entry in the race for the Republican Presidential nomination, has a birthday anniversary today—his 67th. Mr. Lowden is a lawyer, Minnesota born and Iowa educated, who got his professional training in Chicago, married a daughter of George M. Pullman, the palace car magnate, and settled down to conducting litigation for clients rich and poor. For a year he taught law at Northwestern University. Enlisting in politics he held important state and national positions in the Republican party's administrative machine. From 1906 to 1911 he sat in Congress. He did not emerge politically again until 1916, when he was elected governor of Illinois. Mr. Lowden has been a member of the Republican national committee and a delegate to numerous conventions.

Dr. Crane's Editorial

LAW OR REVENGE

The other day a woman shot and killed a man who had wronged her daughter.

The coroner's jury exonerated her and the grand jury and the district attorney declined to prosecute.

The murder charge was dismissed, the officials evidently holding that it would be impossible to secure a jury that would find the woman guilty.

It is hard to condemn this woman, and most of us think that the man, if the circumstances are as alleged, got about what was coming to him.

We would all have done about the same thing if we had been in the woman's place.

At the same time if the man's offense was unpardonable the woman's is no less so.

She took the law in her own hands, constituted herself judge, jury and executioner, and inflicted the death penalty. This is contrary to all our notions of justice.

The victim was entitled to his day in court and should have been allowed to plead in his own defense, if there was any defense to be made, and he was entitled to the judgment of a jury of his peers.

Such juries have not proved themselves very lenient with this kind of offense and the probabilities are that it would have fared hard with the culprit.

The trouble with the world is the tendency that we all have at times to take the law into our own hands. Nations insist upon being "guardians of their own honor" and the result is burdensome armaments and the constant menace of war. Not until all questions of whatever character are subject to arbitration and a ruling by a disinterested party will war cease.

The same thing is true in everyday life.

Individuals should not be allowed to carry lethal weapons. No man should be equipped to take human life unless he is properly constituted as an execution by society and until the accused has a chance to defend himself.

Policemen exist because we have all agreed to refer our quarrels to the courts and not to enforce our private judgments by force of arms.

This is the essence of civilization.

Of course the man sinned, according to reports, but the woman sinned quite as much, for she struck at the orderly construction of society which implies that a man shall not right his own wrongs, but shall leave that matter to a disinterested party.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

SAVE THE COOK.

It has been said that man will in time lose the need of legs, lose his legs entirely; though the golfer says, not. If man will persist in riding wherever he goes, his legs will certainly disappear, however, if there is any truth whatever in evolution.

Now it is the housewifely cook who is about to disappear. The modern is not eating at home as did his forebears. Nearly one hundred million meals a day were served last year in restaurants, cafeterias, lunch rooms, hotels, schools, clubs and other public places,—some clean and swell, some quick and dirty. Fully one meal in four is eaten away from the Home.

What is going to happen if the habit increases? Think of all the indigestion caused by such a course of living. Think of the work thereby being prepared for the Doctor and Druggist and the Undertaker. Up to the present time the Life Insurance Companies have been boasting of the increased span of life which has resulted from improved methods of living, but if the good family cook is going to disappear, there is going to be a change in all that.

It is suggested that the change of habit on the part of the public has been caused by the scarcity of household servants. There are not so many Dinahs to "Blow the Horn." Then it is said that the increase in the per capita wealth and the perfection of the automobile has caused people to desire more leisure, travel and luxury.

Anyway, fine homemade, crusty bread, pies, cookies, cakes, the morning buckwheats, sausages and all that sort of thing have been also determined as being fully as bad for the stomach as any product of a French Chef.

LOVE AS A GUIDE

There is an inheritted disposition to be exempt from cancer and an inherited disposition to be susceptible to cancer. Experts say if men and women gave more thought to marriage and refused to let love be the sole guide we would gradually eliminate the dread disease. They say people with tendencies toward cancer must never marry. But love is and will be the guide—love, or what passes for love. It's going to take many gen

KINSHIP

It doesn't much matter, I say,
Be he a great man or low,
Clever or dull in his way,
Swift in decision or slow.
A boy or an old man and gray,
His friendship is worth while to know.

The praise of a poor man's as sweet
As the praise of the richest in town.
So why be disdainful and greet
The messenger boy with a frown?
The toiler you scorn on the street,
Tomorrow may rise to renown.

Each of life's battles for bread,
Each of its works by the day,
Good will of the heart not the head
The spirit and not of the pay,
And the words which are scornfully said,
May frighten a true friend away.

Life is a thrilling romance,
And none can be sure of its end.
Fate may be turned by a glance
Or word that is spoken or penned
Who meets with a man has a chance
Of making a foe or a friend.

IN NEW YORK

Bruce Reynolds was in to see me, just before sailing on the Majestic for another look at Paris. Reynolds is the author or "Cocktail Continentale" and "Paris With the Lid Lifted." Both books have had remarkable sales and continue selling, and the world of book - readers doubtless picture Reynolds as a terrible rake. The books go into lurid detail about drinking and carousing in Paris.

You'd be surprised. Reynolds has never taken a drink of liquor in his life. He is a philosophical citizen who likes to sit down and talk soberly and seriously about life and living. He is an optimist in the best sense, and knows humanity so well that he loves it. He is a native of Kentucky, and likes small town life. He makes his living writing about Paris, but he does his living, when he can, in country towns.

Reynolds is bald, stocky, and would look like a rural preacher if he cared to dress the part. But he dresses very stylishly, and somewhat extremely in the mode.

Henry Ford and Mrs. Ford were wandering about in Grand Central Terminal the other day, when I was catching a train. Most of the crowd paid no attention to the distinguished couple. Occasionally someone would say, "There goes Henry Ford!" and a few of the curious would follow the automobile maker until they had satisfied themselves that he looks exactly like his pictures. Mrs. Ford looks much younger than her distinguished husband. She has acquired a set of face wrinkles much like those of the elder Rockefeller, but not so deep.

Here's a tip on how to make an everlasting friend of Albert Payson Terhune, in case you ever eat dinner at the same table with him. Don't say, "Oh, Mr. Terhune, how are the dogs?" That question has been tossed at him so often at dinners that the gigantic and genial writer has difficulty in restraining his temper when he hears it. The Terhunes are in town now for a bit of sociability and opera.

In an afternoon's drive about Staten Island recently, I visited Stapleton. A few years ago this little town had visions. Hylan was mayor of New York, and he undertook construction of a set of piers at Stapleton to berth the world's largest ocean liners. The great traffic was to be transferred from Manhattan and Hoboken to Stapleton. The piers are there now, with lonesome little boats tied up at them. Just another dream with the silver extracted.

Claims Land Co. Broke Contract For Sale Of Lot

Charles H. Gould Sues Shelby Company For $6,737.75 Loss And Damages

STOREROOM ERECTED RAZED BY COMPANY

Charles H. Gould, now of Butler, but formerly of Ellwood City, has filed a suit at the Lawrence county prothonotary's office against the Shelby Land company, in which he claims $6,737.75 for breach of contract. Prior to Oct. 15, 1920, it is claimed that the Shelby Land company had a plot of lots at Ewing Park. Plaintiff says that the company was desirous of having a store on the plot and that after being solicited by C. J. Carlson, agen for the company, he agreed to buy a lot for $1200 and erect a storeroom.

Plaintiff says that there was no particular design of a storeroom suggested by the defendant. Gould was to pay $200 down, which he did, and the balance was to be paid in monthly payments of $30. Gould says that he went ahead and constructed the building, making some minor changes suggested by the defendant.

When it was erected at a cost of $4100 Gould says that he spent $1000 for equipment and opened a grocery. About Sept. 3, 1923, it is claimed by Gould that the defendant company by its agent, C. J. Carlson, circulated a story to the effect that the plaintiff had no right to erect the kind of a storeroom he had on the lot and as a result the business of the plaintiff was so badly hurt that he had to quit. After he had left the building, it is claimed that the defendant gave an Old Home Week committee permission to occupy the building for the sale of soft drinks and sandwiches, and that as a result the equipment and building were considerably damaged.

On March 29, 1924, Gould, with his attorney, M. J. Kraus, tendered the Shelby Land company $1,113.29, balance due on the lot with interest, and demanded a deed for the property. The company, it is claimed, refused, alleging that Gould had no right to erect the storeroom.

During August of 1927 it is claimed that the Shelby Land company tore down the building. Gould is now asking for the $4100 he put into it, $1000 for fixtures and the balance of the $6,737.75 asked for good will of the business and expenses.

LIKE GROWNUPS

Forbes, financial writer, is right when he says business will have a good year in 1928 if we will act like mental grownups. Fear is bad enough for children. It is worse for adults. If we insist on being frightened by a presidential year business will be slowed down. There is no reason for it. Fear is usually worse than the reality.

TOO MUCH "BOOING"

Dr. Kegel, health commissioner of Chicago, has a four-months-old son. Being a health commissioner he has some ideas about baby raising. Nobody is permitted to say "boo" to this baby. Excitement is exhausting, says the doctor. He wants the baby to live a placid life.

It would be a good idea if nobody ever said "boo" to any baby, or to anybody else for that matter. We all spend too much time, as it is, being excited or scared about trifles. If we can get over the habit of letting "boo" frighten us we shall find ourselves living in a calmer, gentler world.

MONKEYS

A lot of preachers are fighting monkeys instead of fighting the devil, says Roy Smith, famous pastor of Minneapolis. Of course he means too many preachers are worried about theology and evolution. Christianity doesn't need to be concerned with either theology or evolution. If Christianity is not a "way of life" it is nothing that we need get very much interested in. If Christianity is a mere problem in philosophy—a problem sub-divided into creeds—the rank and file of folks are never going to have the time or the inclination to care much about it.

Rev. S. R. Maitland Speaker At Meeting Of Salvation Army

Rev. S. R. Maitland was the speaker Wednesday evening at the special meetings being conducted at the Salvation Army. Before beginning his sermon he spoke a little on the Army. He said that he could recall when the Salvation Army first came to New Castle. He said his first remembrance of the Army was of the officer standing alone, with the Bible in one hand and the stars and stripes in the other, proclaiming the truth of God. He was but a lad then and could recall the history of the Army from the beginning to the present day and has a great desire to see it prosper.

Rev. Maitland took his text from Matthew 24:35. He said in part "Our Lord spoke those words in one of the most wonderful messages ever given. It was but a short time before he went to Calvary to hang on the cross. From that time the devil has been trying to cause His word to pass away. There's coming a day when this old world will pass away. His word will stand and we must accept it in this life."

At the close of the service there were four at the altar with seven hands raised for prayer. The hall was filled for the meeting.

This evening, Rev. E. A. Crooks of the Reformed Presbyterian church will preach.

"I am so happy that the last pimple is gone—"

WITHOUT this handicap, there returns the very natural confidence, joy and cherished pride of possessing a clear skin.

Men and women both justly covet admiration, and you can expect such satisfaction only if you are happy in a clear, unblemished skin.

The sure way to reach this state is through the blood.

Red blood cells are Nature's elements for building and sustaining the body.

Without plenty of rich, red blood, there can be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or beautiful, healthy women.

You know a clear skin comes from within. Correct the cause—through the blood—and pimples, boils, eczema and that sallow complexion will disappear.

Thousands have regained their strength and charm by taking a few bottles of S.S.S.—Nature's own tonic for restoring the appetite—building strength—and clearing the body of so-called skin troubles.

All drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Get the larger size. It is more economical.

Nitrogen Era To Add Years To Man's Life

The Synthetic Manufacture Of Essential Substances To Aid Human Race

Earth Has Lost Much Of Its Chemical Properties In Ages Past

By J. KINGSBURG SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Dec. 26.—Despite the tremendous nerve-wrecking rate in which we are moving and our supposedly 'fast-methods of living,' life upon this earth is going to be longer for mankind, for a new era has dawned on the world. It is the era of nitrogen plenty.

Three of the principal essentials necessary for the maintenance of life in our advenced stage of living, according to chemical and agricultural authorities, are nitrogen, phosphates, and potash. And we have all three.

These are manufactured under the form of snythetic nitrogenous fertilizers, providing the world with an unlimited amount of nitrogen. Before the coming of these new fertilizers the sum total of life upon this planet was limited by the amount of available nitrogen. The limit has been removed.

Statistics show the civilized Mankind has been drawing on the agricultural reserves of the world to a greater extent than they are being supplied by nature, and that although there are, at the present time, considerable reserves of untouched land at the disposal of humanity, the end is obviously in sight, for man has been as it were, living on his accumulated capital of agricultural resources.

Living On 'Overdraft'

This he might have continued to do forever, it is pointed out by agricultural authorities, if the external sources from which they came had been indefinitely great, but as it is, man has been living on what might be termed an "overdraft."

Due to the continued plowing and re-plowing of Nature's surface, the earth has lost a great deal of its chemical properities, with the result that the products cultivated on these lands show a marked decrease every few years.

Now, three of these chemical properties, most necessary to the growth of vegetation, are nitrogen, phosphates, and potash, therefore with this new fertilizer, containing all of the above chemicals, Nature will receive what to man would be a stimulant.

As regards phosphates and potash the natural mineral resources of the world are sufficiently great to satisfy not only the needs of this generation, but also of mankind for as long a period as is reasonable to contemplate. Of potash, in fact, there is an almost inexhaustible supply in the Dead Sea, and the development of that industry there is not only providing an alternative source of supply, but will encourage the whole of the future industrial development of Palestine.

Shortage of Nitrogen

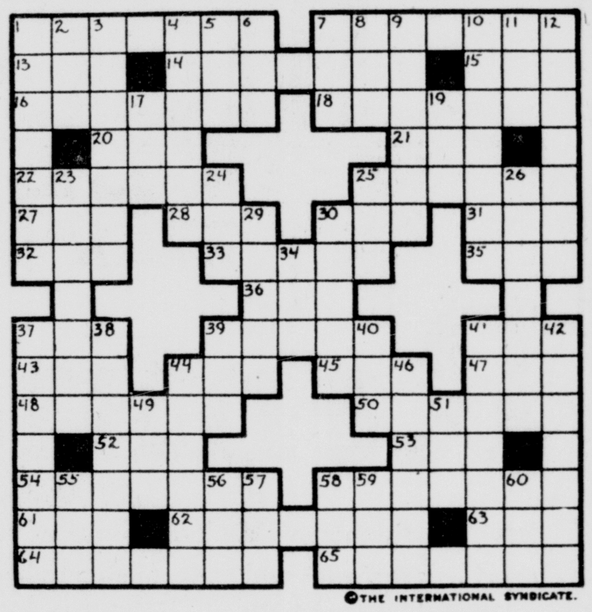

On the other hand, the question of a probable shortage of fixed nitrogen has caused a great deal of anxiety among agriculturists for a long period past.

Formerly the world's sources of fixed nitrogen were the nitrate fields of Chili, the by-product ammonia of the coal industry and the ordinary agents of nature, namely, the nitrifying bacteria of the soil and certain plants such as clover.

Then Germany came forward and criginated the process for the fixation of nitrogen, consisting of synthetic nitrogenous fertilizers, which immediately became a great success. This found its way into Great Britain, and here, under the supervision of mechanical geniuses, it has been further developed to such an extent that this country now leads in its economic production.

The Portuguese government is taking steps to popularize the English language in Portugal.

Indian War Survivor Granted $50 Pension By U. S. Government

(International News Service)

BLACKBURN, England, Jan. 26.—Jacob Haworth, one of the three known survivors of the American Redskin wars, has been granted a pension of $50 a month from the United States Government in recognition of his services in the countless American campaigns against the Indians of fifty years ago.

Haworth, who retired as a sergeant in the 11th Infantry Regiment of the U. S. Army in the days when Indian raids against the white settlements were a daily feature, fought against the Sioux Indians in Dawkota, and was present when Governor Fletcher and Bishop Whipple witnessed the signing of the treaty between the Indians and the whites.

PETER'S ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

A FRIEND IN NEED.

"The 'black bird' of the family!"

There was something about this last remark of Screech Owl's that made Crow angry.

"Don't say that again" cawed he. "I am a 'black bird' myself and I have no such mean traits as that relative of yours. I have a good mind to give you a taste of my beak Owl and it is sharp I can promise you that. Lack of food hasn't dulled it a bit."

"Shay! Shay!" hissed Screech Owl fearfully. "Don't you dare to poke your beak in my hole. I have done you no harm have I? And I am sure that I didn't mean anything by calling Great Horned Owl a 'black bird.' That is just an expression that we have in the family."

"There you have said it again" screamed Crow furiously. "You are the most provoking chap. No wonder my cousins the Blue Jays love to chase you I heard that they caught you too as you were coming home this morning."

"Now, what are you two scrapping for?" asked Peter, suddenly. "Owl didn't mean to insult you Crow I am sure. And, Crow you must acknowledge that it isn't very nice for the Blue Jays to tease Owl the way they do. If it's Owl's habit to fly by night and sleep by day why that is his business and I don't suppose that he really means to scare any of you when he gives his hunting cry. I think that he is very wise myself and I think that it is too bad the way we are keeping him awake. What do you say to our going away and leaving him in peace?"

"Ca-ca-w! And who may you be, my fine sir to have so much to say about matters and things?" snapped Crow. Raising his crown feathers and lifting his wings from his sides, he leaned forward and peered inquisitively at the boy. Then he gave a gasp of surprise.

"Are you the Two-Legs who scattered bread crumbs in a corner of the garden yesterday?" asked he. "You look very much like him except you are tiny and he was big."

"I am the Two Legs you mean" laughed Peter. "I am little on purpose now you know but I am liable to grow large at any time. I am glad you recognize me. I hoped you would. You needn't worry any longer about starving to death for I will see to it that you have a few crumbs to eat every day this winter."

"Then you are a friend in time of need," cawed the Crow in tones of great joy. "How pleased my wife will be when I tell her. She has been worrying herself sick. In fact she was too ill to come out with me this morning and I miss her company. It is not once in a coon's age that we are separated even on a fly."

"T'cherr-r-whieu wailed Screech Owl suddenly and both the bird and boy jumped. "It makes me feel so sad to hear you talk about your wife I shall have to roost here alone for another month or so. No Lady Owl will pay any attention to me until the cold weather is nearly over. I do want a mate so badly T'cher-r-whieu! T'cher-r-whieu! Oh what a lonely bird I am."

Explains Remedies For Icy Windshields

Use Salt, Alcohol Or Glycerine, Urges Motor Club Manager

Of all the difficulties that confront the motorist in winter, few are more exasperating, disconcerting and dangerous than the ice coated windshield, says Bernard N. Hanlon, manager of the New Castle Motor club, who points out that many car owners are under the impression that this particular situation has no remedy. There are several remedies, says Mr. Hanlon, and the motorist would spare himself many agonized hours if he acquainted himself with them and applied them as needed.

"Alcohol, salt and glycerine are the three substances that deal very effectively with the ice coated windshield," he declares. "The motorist who desires to avoid this problem, which is responsible for so many accidents, should carry one of these three aids with him on his winter journey. All lend themselves very readily to being additions to the tool kit.

"If salt is the substance which one decides to have handy for an emergency of this character, it should be applied to the windshield when it begins to collect ice. This creates a brine solution which will not freeze. It is necessary to apply additional salt from time to time as the original coat washes off, but, properly handled, this remedy is one of the most effective.

"In addition to these, the motorist should keep his windshield cleaner operating at the highest efficiency. The icy windshield has been tolerated too long.

Would Kill Every Stray Dog Found In Rhode Island

(International News Service)

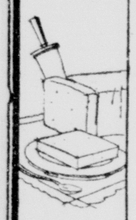

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 26.—Killing of every stray dog in Rhode Island is advocated by Dr. Byron U. Richard, secretary of the state board of health.

Rhode Island has had but one case or rabies in two years whereas the disease is prevalent in nearby Massachusetts. Dr. Richards fears that the Bay state dogs will disregard the state boundary and wander into Little Rhody and perhaps give the disease to the rovers of Rhode Island hence the recommendation.

Search Continues For Missing Girl In Massachusetts

Deny Ransom Report Girl Is Held For $50,000; Resume Dragging Of River

PARENTS ARE NEAR COLLAPSE, REPORTED

Mother Of Frances St. John Smith Believes That Daughter Is Still Alive

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Public interest in the strange disappearance of Frances St. John Smith, who vanished from Smith College, Northampton, Mass., on January 13, was heightened today by a widely circulated but unconfirmed report that the eighteen-year-old girl was being held for $50,000 ransom.

Parents of the missing student and their legal advisers were said to be in communication with those demanding money for revealing her alleged whereabouts. That the report was a fact was denied, however, by Langdon Marvin, New York city attorney, and close friend of the family. He said Miss Smith's parents had received about ten "so-called ransom letters" but they had as yet had no reason to place credence in any of them.

Drag River.

Despite the ransome report, the authorities, proceeding on the theory that Miss Smith might have drowned herself, continued to drag the Connecticut river at Hadley bridge, Northampton, the scene of several suicides and plans went forward for a scouring of the countryside by airplane.

Mr. and Mrs. St. John Smith, weighed down with grief and anxiety, were meanwhile being deluged with rumors, reports, guesses and suggestions from all parts of the country. The parents are in Northampton hoping for some favorable news. Not since the disappearance eighteen years ago of another New York heiress, Dorothy Arnold, has public interest attained the height it has in the mysterious case of pretty, titian-haired Frances.

"I am sure she is still alive," said Mrs. Smith. "She was a delicate, sensitive soul. I believe she ran away because she felt certain she would fail in her midyear examinations. I am sure she is hiding somewhere and that we will hear from her. I must keep up courage."

Mrs. Smith is on the verge of a collapse.

NATIONAL AND STATE LEADERS LEGION GUESTS

ler county, M. J. Kane and Dr. C. C. Kinney, were asked to co-operate. This they did with a will, and late this afternoon the Legion hegira will be coming into New Castle for the banquet tonight.

Banquet at 6:30

The banquet tonight will be served at 6:30 o'clock. The bugle and drum corps of the Butler post and the Slippery Rock post will be on hand to play martial music, together with an orchestra.

Following the service of the meal Post Commander A. Edward Russell, general chairman of the affair, will introduce Toastmaster W. Walter Braham, Mary Mitchell Evans, wife of Legionnaire James L. Evans, will be the soloist of the evening, accompanied by Anna Kent Welsh, wife of Legionnaire Paul A. Welsh, the latter the pepmaster of the evening. Commander Fugini of the Chicora post, formerly a stellar attraction on the vaudeville stage as an accordion player, will also entertain.

District Deputy Commander Pat J. Dempsey will introduce National Commander Spafford and Commander Russell will introduce State Commander Edwin E. Hollenback. The third speaker of the evening will be Burgess Bill Levis of Beaver Falls, a humorist and philosopher.

At 4:30 o'clock a public reception for the distinguished guests will be held in the Castleton, to which the general public is invited. The reception will close at 5:30 in order to allow the commanders to rest before the evening program.

Tickets Not Available

Because of the necessity of guaranteeing somewhere near the number of plates to be served, it was necessary to discontinue the sale of tickets Monday evening. At that time the reservations showed 950. No more tickets were sold and none are available now, although the Legion regrets being unable to accommodate all those who have asked for tickets since.

The work of planning for the monster affair tonight has been one which required the co-operation of the entire post, and with the local post the co-operation of the various posts of the 26th district.

Every indication points to tonight's being the biggest Legion affair ever held in western Pennsylvania, not even excepting the annual national commander events which are held in Pittsburgh.

Plans Changed

Due to a change in the arrangements, National Commander Edward E. Spafford was not met in Pittsburgh this morning by the committee, as first planned. Instead, he came through from New York on the Pennsylvania.

State Commander Edwin E. Hollenback, his wife and State Adjutant James J. Deighan were met in Pittsburgh by a committee headed by Post Commander A. Edward Russell and District Deputy Commander Pat J. Dempsey and escorted to New Castle by automobile.

At one o'clock a luncheon was given in honor of the visitors in the Castleton.

Commander Arrives

What the American Legion is, what it stands for and what it will fight for was explained this morning by E. E. Spafford of Indianapolis, national commander, who arrived in New Castle shortly before noon today to address the banquet of the Legionnaires, which will take place this evening in the dining room of the Scottish Rite Cathedral.

The age of the average Legionnaire is about 35, according to Mr. Spafford's statement.

"It is surprising," he mused, "when one thinks back over the past 10 years. It is hard to realize that the same young boys who were hauled out to serve the flag are now the somewhat grizzled veterans of the Legion. In some parts of the country they still call these men 'our boys', and I am sure that they will continue to do so until the last one dies.

Legion Is Glorious

In this respect the Legion is like an individual. It is a 'last man' organization, lasting only until the last of the boys are buried. But today the Legion is glorious. In our ranks we have 14 United States senators, many governors and 60 representatives is Congress.

"And it amuses me, but the opinion of the average man when we went to Paris for our convention last summer was to the effect that we were still too young. They predicted all sorts of disaster and pictured the dire straits the boys would get into while running wild. Again they were surprised when the exact opposite happened. Our reception was wonderful and the behavior of every one of the Legionnaires was a credit to the country they represented.

"It was also interesting to me to hear the heads of other veteran organizations congratulate us on having the strongest organization in the world.

Stand of Legion

The stand of the Legion toward war and an increase of naval cruiser strength was next explained by Mr. Spafford.

"It is the stand of the Legion, as I understand it," he stated, that they feel the people do not want war, but that a large armament is necessary to maintain peace. In 1922 this nation entered into a conference, the upshot of which was the fact that we scrapped the most powerful navy that the world has ever seen. We did so as a gesture of peace. Over 800,000 tons of capital ships were lost in this manner, a greater tonnage than was ever lost in all the naval battles of the world.

"Since that time, when the number of naval vessels was limited and the building programs ceased, other nations began to increase their naval strength. They built ships that were bigger and now they have become capital ships.

"In recent years we have built but 16 vessels, six of which are pitiably small, designed for use on the rivers of China. But other signatory nations have built many times this number of battleships, all told, about 350.

Want Larger Navy

"It is the sentiment of the people of this country that they want a navy equal to that of any other country, but they are surprised when they find that our navy is small, not nearly the strength of Great Britain's, or even Japan's.

"At the present there is no danger of war with any other country, but the other coutries have made combinations to compete against the commercial supremacy of the United States.

"In the steel industry, Europe has formed an international combine to exchange coal and iron, thus giving employment to their people. We also must have employment. We must look out for the interests of the people first and see to it that they have employment. We must live on that economic basis of which the nation is justly proud. Any agreements that United States may make in trading with other nations are only as powerful as the force in back of the nation used to sustain our statements."

For Nicaragua Policy.

A whole-hearted support of the United States in Nicaragua is asked by Mr. Spafford, when he says that this country is in the hands of a government which does not seek to do any injury to any other people.

"The Monroe Doctrine has been in force for well over a century," Mr. Spafford continued, "and never yet has it been a selfish doctrine. It has always guaranteed the sovereignty of other nations in the western hemisphere. Back in the days of the Roosevelt administration, when Venezuela declined to pay their debts to Great Britain, Italy and Germany, it was with the sanction of the United States that these nations set up an economic blockade, took over the revenues of the country, and collected the money which was due to them. Then they withdrew their forces as they had promised. Of this I know, for I was present at the Venezuela affair.

"Of the Nicaraguan question, I do not know the details, other than those released to the press. But it seems that the government of the United States tried to aid a country which is continuously overrun with bandits and revolutionaries. What the United States wishes to do is to bring about a stable government. Without anything else entering into the discussion, I believe that the action is right, and we are working to the best interests of the people of Nicaragua and the world at large."

Tolerance Urged.

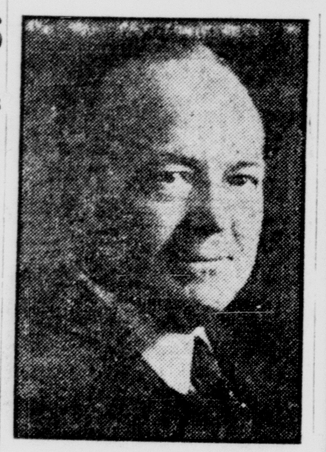

Again, tolerance is the keynote on which the nation and the Legion is built," stated Mr. Spafford in commenting on the recent speech made on the floor of the senate by Tom Heflin of Alabama. "When the constitution was written in 1787, there was only one of the colonies, Rhode Island, that had complete religious freedom. Even Pennsylvania had tolerance only for Protestants.

"Well, before the constitution was adopted, Rhode Island forced religious tolerance into the document, and so the United States became the first nation in the world where the people were guaranteed the right to worship God as they saw fit. Since that time there have been periodic outbursts of fanatics, even as in the old days. These men stood up and blamed an event or a happening on the religion or belief of individuals.

"As a man who saw service in the last war, I would impress upon these men the fact that regardless of the religious belief, every American citizen works for the best interests of his country. Any person who would take the trouble to visit any one of the American cemeteries in France and read the names inscribed on the white crosses, would realize that the blood test rings true. Americans are people whose ancestors are from every part of the world, and the Legion is the soul of that force which represented America in 1917 and 1918. We have no limit to our membership because of creed or form of worship.

"And I believe that any man standing and making a speech wherein he decries a class which is worshipping in their own volition, should first visit one of the American cemeteries in France and rededicate himself to the principles of true American citizenship."

Ask $26,000 From Reick-McJunkin Co. For Auto Accident

Theona Hamaker, Aged 10, Badly Injured When Struck By Defendant's Truck

Theona Hamaker, aged 10, by her father, Clyde V. Hamaker, of 11½ South Jefferson street, has filed a suit at the Lawrence county prothonotary's office against the Reick-McJunkin company for $26,000, as the result of an automobile accident in which Theona Hamaker was injured.

It is claimed that on February 3, 1927, Theona Hamaker was on East Washington street near Apple Alley and started to cross from the north to the south side of the street, at the crossing at Apple Alley. She says that before attempting to cross she looked both ways and saw no vehicles.

When near the center of the street she was struck by a truck of the defendant company, receiving injuries about the head, face, body and legs. As a result of her injuries she was laid up for some time and her father claims to have expended large amounts in doctor bills. The father claims damages on the grounds that he has been deprived and will be deprived of the girl's earnings.

It is claimed that the truck was being driven at a high rate of speed in violation of ordinances and the automobile laws, and that no warning was given previous to the accident.

Plan To Improve American People

Pan-American Conference Is Giving Consideration To Matter Of Eugenics

(International News Service)

HAVANA, Jan. 26.—Measures designed to improve the American of the species throughout the new world will be recommended to the attention of the 21 republics by the Sixth Pen-American conference, under a report being drafted today by the commission on social problems.

The measures are based upon the finding of the foremost American authorities on eugenics and homoculture as prepared at the meeting in Havana last month of the first new world conference on these subjects.

The program has two phases:

First, the improvement of the peoples already living in the Americas.

Second, the selection abroad of only such immigrants as will strengthen rather than weaken the mental, moral and physical fibre of the American peoples.

Other matters before the conference today include the Inter-American commercial aviation treaty, the codification of American international law and the project for the organization of the Pan-American Union.

'Hickmanism' Blamed For Breaking Down Young Folks' Morale

By HARRY BLOOMBARGH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 26.—A new disease, "Hickmanism," found among young people, caused by negativism and suppression in the home and schools is breaking down the moral of our boys and girls.

This was the startling revelation made here recently by Dr. George F. Arps, head of the department of psychology at Ohio University and national authority on the problems of adolescent children.

"Relief can only come from the proper treatment of the brains of children while in the process of unfolding," Prof. Arps advised.

The psychology professor cited the case of William E. Hickman, who startled the world by kidnapping and slaying the 12-year-old Los Angeles school girl, as an example of the inroads the new disease is making.

"The 'don't' process of training the child, begun in the home and continued through the lower school, must be stopped," Prof. Arps emphatically asserted. "Rather than carefully guiding the child in expression, our attitude as a rule, toward children is that of suppression. Suppression may be accomplished in two minutes, leading by gentle stages expression may take an afternoon. However, this extra effort and time is worth the trouble.

"We should lead our children out of the wilderness of doubt, uncertainty and sometimes dispair, when they pass from infancy to adulthood through the turbulent rapids beset with emotional, spiritual and physical hazards."

In conclusion Professor Arps intimated there are moral and physical derelicts "because no guide or mentor accompanies youth on the perilous adventure "from childhood to adulthood."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Examinations to fill existing vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant in the army air corps will be held in the week of February 27 to March 3, the War Department has announced. U. S. Air Mail Plans Service At G. O. P. Meet

(International News Service)

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 26.—The United States Air Mail Service is likely to do an unprecedented business when the Republican National Convention meets at Kansas City, next June, according to C. E. Fleming, traffic manager of the National Air Transport, Inc., pictures, newsreels, news stories and the likes may be air bound for New York, San Francisco and other points within twenty minutes after they are deposited in the boxes.

Picture agencies and syndicates are making extensive arrangements to furnish papers all the important convention incidents the day following their occurence.

Special Reports

Twenty newspapers, to date, are preparing to have special wires installed to the Hall, so that their correspondents will have almost the same facilities between their offices as the reports for local papers.

Activities of a local committee of the chamber of commerce, which is to have charge of preliminary arrangements for the convention, have been laid aside until after a conference of representatives of the Republican National committee here January 5. A committee then will be appointed to take care of hotel reservations and housing problems generally. Other plans necessary to care for the delegates, alternates and the hordes of persons who will desire to visit the Convention, will be handled by special committeees which will be appointed from time to time.

City To Clean Up

Kansas City is already getting under way to scrub its front porch and polish up generally. All business houses are being urged to join a general cleanup and to remove objectionable overhead signs, so the city may be made spic and span for company.

A surge of buying has begun with hotels and cafes purchasing new stocks of silverware, linens and other equipment. A significant incident occurred when one large department store, which refused to contribute to the $150,000 fund for convention expenses, in the belief it would not be benefitted, received an order for $19,000 worth of new bed linen.

It is easy to dodge responsibility, but you cannot dodge the consequences of dodging responsibility.

National Committee Plans For Meeting

(International News Service)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 26.—The national executive committee of the American Legion Auxiliary will meet in this city January 27 and 28, according to a call which has gone out from national headquarters of the organization here.

Committee women from every state in the Union will attend the meeting, at which the program of activities of the organization for the coming year will be decided.

Make Additions To Museum At London

LONDON, Jan. 26.—A number of interesting additions to the British Museum have been made during the last month, in pictures, manuscrips, books and antiquities. Hundreds of visitors to the institution daily attest their interest in the new acquisitions.

What is considered the most noteworthy acquisition is a mazer from the Parish Church of Epworth, Lincolnshire. The bowl which is believed to have great historical value, was sold by the church in order to pay for structural repairs to the church building.

The bowl dates from the early sixteenth century. It is fashioned of silver and wood, and bears a central design representing St. Andrew and St. John the Baptist. A 19th century band of silver, inserted to strengthen the mazer, it is hoped may now be safely removed, now that the danger from such handling is past.

Two new exhibits of considerable interest have been added to the Egyptian galleries. They are a heavy gold signet ring of the Saite period (7th to 5th century B. C.) once the property of Ankh-Psamatik, a priest of Thoth, and the cast of an exquisite little head of a princess, daughter of Akhenaten, and wife or sister-in-law of King Tut Ankh-Amen.

The original of the statue, which is now in the Cairo Museum, is of red quartzite, and found by the Egypt Exploration Society, during this year's excavations at Tell-el-Amaena, in the rubbish heap of a private estate.

New Law Requires State O. K. On All Municipal Debts

Makes Internal Affairs Department Responsible For Bond Issues

HARRISBURG, Jan. 26.—Scores of inquiries concerning the new municipal bond approval act, effective January 1, this year, have reached the Department of Internal Affairs during the past few weeks.

The act, passed by the Legislature of 1927, provides that application for approval of the sale of bonds by any county, city of the third class, borough, town, township, school district of the second, third and fourth class and poor district must be made to the Department of Internal Affairs before such bonds can be disposed of legally. Officers of the various municipalities, before any bond can be sold, must certify to the Department of Internal Affairs a complete and accurate copy of the proceedings leading up to the incurring or increasing of indebtedness, together with the assessed valuation of the property subject to taxation within the respective municipality, the total amount of the existing indebtedness and the several amounts claimed as permitted deductions in ascertaining the real indebtedness of such municipality.

Up To Department

Immediately upon receipt of such proceedings, the law provides that the Department of Internal Affairs shall examine the various papers and if the proceedings are found to be in accordance with the constitution and the law, shall approve the application for the bond sale and certify approval to the proper municipality.

In discussing the new act today, Secretary of Internal Affairs James F. Woodward said that some municipalities have got the idea that examination is not necessary in all cases and he took occasion to say that an opinion of the Attorney General clearly states that examination by his department cannot be waived under the provisions of the law, the act making such examinations compulsory.

Approximately 6000 municipal subdivisions of the Commonwealth are included within the provisions of the Act, Secretary Woodward said and already a dozen applications for approval have been received by the department. These proposed issues are the results of the November election when loans were voted upon in many parts of the state.

BLOOD IS LIFE

Is your blood bad; have you pains in your bones and joints, swelling of the Glands, Boils, Pimples, Eczema, Old Sores that won't heal, rashes or breaking out of the skin? If so, see me at once. When your health has been undermined by worry or overwork, when your vitality is lowered, when you have that "don't care a rap" feeling, when your nerves are depressed, when your work appears too much for you, you are then in a run-down condition.

You may be an "old man" when actually young in years simply through neglect.

Branch Library Being Planned For South Side

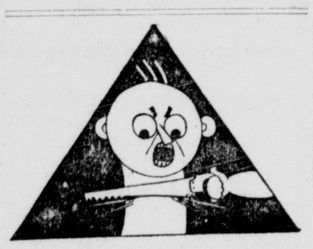

Although nothing definite has been decided, tentative arrangements are being made by the board of directors of the New Castle Public Library whereby a room will be acquired on the South Side for the installation of a branch library, according to a statement made today by Wylie McCaslin, president of the library board. The location of the room will be in the vicinity of the intersection of Mill street and Long avenue.

Miss Alice M. Sterling, librarian, announces that after the room is rented by the library board, it can be ready for the residents on the South Side in something less than six weeks. It is her plan to have the branch open two afternoons and evenings a week, probably between the hours of one and nine. It is contemplated that a new stock of books will be bought for the new branch, to supplement duplications in the main library building.

Special Message To Children Sunday In Westfield Church

Rev. Ross M. Haverfield will preach a special sermon to the children at the morning service at 11 o'clock Sunday, Jan. 29, in the Westfield Presbyterian church.

The subject of the message will be "Believing in the Unseen". It has always been the custom of the church to give the fifth Sunday of the month in the interests of the children. A special feature of the service will be selections on the piano by Guy Davis of Wampum. The children will occupy the front seats of the auditorium.

Sunday school will convene at 12:15 at the conclusion of the church service. This will be the first Sunday to hear reports of the stewardship contest.

The Bible school has been divided into two groups called the "Cheerful Givers" and "The Happy Stewards". The contest will close on March 4.

Getting Up Nights

For Bladder Relief. Is Nature's Danger Signal. Columbus Minister's Wife Relates Experience.

Rev. W. H. Mitchell, 824 No. Park St., Columbus, Ohio, says in his own home paper, the Columbus Dispatch: "My wife was troubled seriously with bladder irritation until we used Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula). She had to get up 6 to 8 times each night. Will gladly answer any letters."

Lithiated Buchu acts on the bladder as salts do on the bowels. Drives out foreign matter and decreases excessive acidity, thereby relieving irritation. The tablets cost 2c each at all drug stores. Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at Paisley's Pharmacy.

Took Soda 20 Years for Gas—Stops Now

"For 20 years I took soda for indigestion and stomach gas. One bottle of Adlerika brought me complete relief."—J. B. Hardy.

The simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, saline, etc., (known as Adlerika), has a most surprising DOUBLE action. First, it acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel (most medicines act on lower bowel only) and removes foul matter that often poisoned the system for months. Second, Adlerika clears all GAS and sourness from stomach and bowels, bringing INSTANT relief from stomach trouble. And in addition Adlerika removes metabolic poisons which cause [illegible]

Dr. H. L. Shoub, New York, writes: "Adlerika, in addition to its intestinal cleansing, checks the growth of intestinal bacteria and bacilli."

Dr. J. Weaver: "In my 50 years' practice, I have found nothing to excel Adlerika."

J. E. Puckett: "After using Adlerika, I feel better than for 20 years. Awful impurities were eliminated."

It will astonish you the great amounts of poisonous matter Adlerika brings out—matter you would never believe was in your system. In chronic constipation, gas bloating, sour stomach and sick headache, just ONE spoonful Adlerika brings wonderful relief. At leading druggists.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found how to save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for results. It gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified honey, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaiacol, known the world over for its healing effect on membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

HARD ARTERIES

Hardening arteries indicate high blood pressure, which means that the blood in the heart and blood vessels is under too great a tension —a condition which may end life suddenly.

High blood pressure, indicated by hard arteries, heart palpitation, dizziness and difficulty in breathing, is the penalty of our abnormal habits of living. We place too great a strain on the vital organs, especially the liver. The liver becoming "limp" or sluggish, fails to cleanse the blood of the toxic poisons formed in food waste. The whole system then becomes toxic, with stomach, kidneys, heart and blood vessels affected.

It is generally recognized that the liver occasionally needs a little help. There is nothing better for this, as medical men know, than a little ox gall. Ox gall has been found to be a great stimulant for the Liver. The genuine, pure ox gall is to be had, dainty and tasteless, in the form of Dioxol tablets. Each tablet represents 10 drops of pure ox gall and costs less than 2c at good druggists. To be sure of getting the genuine, look for the name Dioxol and picture of ox's head on the package.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Congress developing a bad case of "nerves" nder the stress of legislative conflict. This was the diagnosis today by eterans on Capitol Hill as they repounted almost daily stories of verbal clashes that shattered congresonal dignity and caused spectators o look for actual physical combats.

The "short and ugly word" has already been heard on the house floor hile in the senate the more polite ut just as emphatic phrase, "that's ot true," has been uttered several mes recently.

"Just a case of nerves," explained he undisturbed veteran of many sesons. "There are plenty of matters here which are almost the same life and death to some members, nd they're ready to spring at every gn of opposition."

While the quarrel between Senator Thomas Heflin (D) of Alabama nd Senator Joseph Robinson (D) of rkansas have attracted widest attntion, a half-dozen other incidents ere pointed out to show that conress is "jumpy."

Many Tilts Reported

The entire house was startled when ep. Free (R) of California called the hite-haired Rep. Cooper, (R) of isconsin, a liar, a remark for which ree was quick to apologize.

Rep. Blanton (D) of Texas, the tormy petrel" of the house, who ngaged in a fight with Rep. Bloom D) of New York last year, stepped the limelight when he cursed durg a committee tilt.

Two house committees, the naval fairs and flood control, have staged r from deliberate scenes, with some embers accusing others of "outragus" treatment to Rear-Admiral homas P. Magruder and Major Genal Edgar Jadwin.

Blanton again precipitated an any discussion when he declared durg a debate that Rep. Wood (R) of diana was not "as considerate for e welfare of the people as he was hen he first came to congress." Rep. indbloom (R) of Illinois sprang to ood's defense with a denunciation Blanton.

Members of congress provide a conderable measure of protection for emselves by prohibiting one memr from questioning the motives of other, but not a few times the undary line has been approached crossed in both senate and house.

Returns to Stage

Although she could lead a life of leisure with the $50,000 a court awarded her from John W. Hubbard, of Pittsburgh, in a breach of promise action, Miss Anne Caldwell prefers to return to the musical comedy stage. She has a part in a New York show.

Trinity Men Hold Fine Social Session

Plans Are Made For The Annual Mothers And Daughters Banquet Of Parish

The social meeting held last night in the guild room of Trinity Episcopal church by the Men's club of the church was very largely attended and was a decided success in every way. Games were the diversion of the ocasion and a smoker was enjoyed. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

At the business session held during the evening plans were made for the annual Mothers and daughters banquet. It was decided that it should be held on the evening of February 15.

As in former years, when these most successful events were held the Men's club will prepare and serve the banquet. The ladies will have charge of the program and the indications are that one of exceptional character will be provided this year.

T. H. Hitchcock will have charge of the diningroom committee for the occasion and R. B. Davenport will have charge of the kitchen.

MAN CARRIES HOUSE ON ARM

Here's an unusual sight that was witnessed this morning on East street. Few people may believe it. But it's true.

An ordinary sized man was seen carrying a six roomed house on his left hand and arm, north on the street and using his right hand only to steady his burden.

Who was this man? Oh yes, just one of the janitors of the Lawrence Savings and Trust company building.

The house. Oh that's another thing. It was a small replica of a cozy six roomed house used for display purposes.

We didn't say it was a regulation sized house. Believe the story. You can't do otherwise.

The Daybook OF A New Yorker

BY BURTON RASCOE

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—There's a riding school near my suburban home which boasts of a most cosmopolitan staff. The hostler is a young German, late of the Prussian Royal Cadets. Two of the instructors are ex-captains of the British and Italian cavalry attachments, respectively, and the owner of the establishment was at one time an officer in Roosevelt's original Rough Riders. It is well, you can see, to stick to one teacher in this group, because each one has a different method and a rider who borrowed from all of them would be sure to stop traffic even along the quiet bylanes of Westchester county.

Arthur William Brown is credited with having called the Paramount's scenario office in New York, "Lasky's Fresh Air Fund". It appears that newspaper men are commissioned to write screen stories, are given a big salary, a ticket to Hollywood and six weeks in which to turn out a masterpiece. My observation, from various inspections of the cinema I have lately made, is that "masterpiece" is what's wrong with that sentence. The picturization of "Helen of Troy", viewed the other night between a visit to Beefsteak Charlie's and one to the theater where "Marco Millions" is playing, bored me greatly. Maybe I had too much of the tobasco sauce at Charlie's. Anyhow, I think most movies are still pretty awful.

When Gilda Gray made personal appearances at the Rivoli theater last month she sang songs, in addition to performing her other arduous acrobatics. Some impolite customer howled, "Just dance Gilda, just dance," thereby stealing Sid Silver's stuff, but being exceedingly appropriate just the same.

* * *

"Hispano Suiza" is made to rhyme with "squeeze yuh" in a certain lyric ornamenting the new Marilynn Miller revue, "Rosalie". This fact, and the twinkling of gold boots of the star, were for me the salient points of an evening, during which I cracked my jaws laughing at Jack Donahue, the comedian of the piece. This Donahue is lean and lantern-jawed and rangy, and some of his orations might just as well have been written by Frank Sullivan, they are so splittingly ridiculous. William Anthony McGuire was responsible for them, according to the program, and Gershwin's several tunes were the last word in off-beat jazz. I saw Peggy Hopkins Joyce in the audience, wearing a white robe de style which might have made her look demure, but didn't. Ziegfeld has an awfully good bet with Bobbie Arnst, a little round girl with a windblown bob and a trick of putting over "blues" songs effectively. Her comedy business is fresh and impromptu, and she has a lot of joie de vie, or whatever it is makes young folks act as if they had just had a pint of Veuve Cliquot for some important year.

Little colored children still dance the Charleston and Black Bottom on the sidewalks of the theatrical district. In Forty-Second street the other night a crowd was throwing pennies to a crowd of kids, and it was more fun watching the scramble for money than keeping time to the dance itself.

In West Forty-Seventh street, near Broadway, a tawdry and disheveled thoroughfare, pedestrians paused in the slush to let a large, flossy town-car pass. In it sat a large lady all diked out in jewels, gold lace and silver fox. Just as the elegant equipage reached the center of the street one of the enormous tires in the rear blew out. The dignity of both chauffeur and lady was damaged by the contretemps. The ribald polloi, awed before, became derisively familiar as the proud chariot drew ignominiously up to the curb.

Electricians at the Eltinge theater gave thanks when "Out of the Night" was withdrawn, and "Out of the Sea" replaced it. This meant changing but one word on the sign board.

Sportsman Will Speak To Fishers

Was Companion Of Jack London And Theodore Roosevelt On Hunting Trips

GROVE CITY, Pa., Jan. 26.—Ozark Ripley, noted outdoorsman, who was once guide and hunting companion of Jack London, Zane Grey, Theodore Roosevelt and other noted hunters, will speak at the Majestic theatre, Tuesday evening, January 31st, under the auspices of the Grove City Chapter of the Izaak Walton League of America.

The noted outdoor man's real name is John B. Thompson, the name Ozark Ripley being given him by Jack London during a hunting trip through the Ozark mountains. He has hunted and fished over an extensive territory both in the north and the south, taking thousands of feet of film with his motion picture equipment. The films will be shown during his talk in the local theater next Tuesday.

FIGHTING SONS OF FIGHTING MEN

Fighting sons of fighting men of the U. S. navy are shown in their weekly boxing drill in the gymnasium at the U. S. naval academy at Annapolis. Their ages range from three to thirteen. Below, "Bud" Kessing, three-year-old son of Commander Oliver Kessing, athletic director at the naval academy, and "Jimmie" McDonald, son if Lieutenant Commander L. D. McDonald, are shown in their weekly workout with the gloves under the instruction of "Spike" Webb.

Materials Arrive For New Hospital

Preparations Under Way For Rapid Progress On Hospital Building

Because of weather conditions, work has slowed up considerably on the construction of the new Jameson Memorial hospital, located on Garfield avenue, according to a representative of the Boldt Construction company of Cleveland, who have the general contract for the building.

But while the work of actual construction has been almost at a standstill, yet immense quantities of materials have arrived in the city and are piled at the hospital site. Both building stones and back up tiles are being shipped daily, and when the weather permits, stone masons and tile setters will begin the work of encasing the frame of the building which has been completed for some time.

One of the features of the building will be a special glass used in the solarium. This glass, it is stated, is so constructed that it will admit ultra-violet rays, and at the same time exclude the infra-red rays from the parlor.

A SNAPPY RETORT

A chorus girl, deliciously pretty, but decidedly lowbrow, somehow found herself at a very select party given by a famous society woman.

The girl, lonely and uncomfortable as a fish out of water, was leaning against the wall, framed against the dark oak, when the hostess took pity on her.

"My dear," she said, kindly, "you look just like an old Rembrandt."

"Well," retorted the damsel, sharply, "you don't look too darned snappy yourself."

Virtue is that perfect good which is the complement of a happy life, the only immortal thing that belongs to mortality.

"Clothes soak whiter-safely -with this hard-water soap" says Mrs. V. Neiper, 937 Maryland Ave.

"RINSO certainly takes the drudgery out of washday!" says this local woman, one of dozens who have written us.

"It makes such grand suds in our water that you never have to do the slightest bit of hard rubbing—all the dirt soaks out in the safe, gentle Rinso suds and clothes get so much whiter they look positively new! And they wear much better—there's so little rubbing.

"Rinso works wonders in general cleaning, too. It makes dishes, floors, woodwork, sinks and tiles bright and shining in a jiffy. I get the big package every time!"

Endorsed by makers of 32 washers

Rinso, the famous granulated hard-water soap, whips at once into creamy, lasting suds. In machine or tub, these suds loosen dirt and stains so they float off by themselves.

What whiteness, what brightness, when you rinse off the suds! Is it any wonder that 32,000 washing machine demonstrators use Rinso—to show their machines at their best?

And the makers of 32 leading washers endorse Rinso for safety. It contains nothing to harm your finest cottons or linens.

Millions of women now use Rinso alone on washday. It's all you need in any water—no bar soaps, chips, powders or softeners. With Rinso you don't even need to boil the clothes, for it whitens and sterilizes without boiling.

Try Rinso next washday. Get the BIG package from your grocer. For economy and best results, follow the easy directions on the package.

Marvelous for tub washing

Rinso actually soaks clothes whiter than you could scrub them. Even the most soiled cuffs and edges become snowy with little or no rubbing. This gentle way saves the clothes—saves your hands. Try it!

Guaranteed by the makers of Lux. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

STUDEBAKER

The Great Independent

The Dictator 4-Door Sedan

$1195 f. o. b. factory

STUDEBAKER'S new Dictator established itself as the champion of its class in a gruelling 24-hour test run held at the Atlantic City Speedway on October 10-11, 1927. A stock Dictator Sedan, fully equipped, covered 1483 miles in 24 hours—total elapsed time—better than mile-a-minute speed for 1440 consecutive minutes!

This remarkable record was established under the supervision of the American Automobile Association. No stock car selling under $1400 has ever traveled so far so fast—convincing proof of The Dictator's sound design and inbuilt stamina.

Look to Studebaker for value!

The Dictator's remarkable value is due to Studebaker's One-Profit manufacturing facilities which reduce profits of outside parts-makers to a minimum. Savings thus made allow for extra quality and added refinements without corresponding increase in price.

You must drive The Dictator to realize its super-value. In it the integrity of construction for which Studebaker has been famous for 76 years is combined with the most advanced engineering of 1928.

Results of Engineering Genius

Due to advanced design, precision manufacture, and the Studebaker practice of running in every car on a dynamometer, The Dictator may be driven as high as 40 miles per hour the day it is delivered. After the first thousand miles changing the oil in the motor and chassis lubrication are required only at 2500-mile intervals.

It was noon at the Mosque. The high priest was intoning. "There is but one God, and Mahomet is his prophet."

A shrill, clear voice broke in, "He is not!" The congregation turned around as one, and among the sea of brown faces could be distinguished one small, delicate yellow one.

The genial priest straightened up and smiled. "There seems to be a little Confuscian here," he said.

New Castle, Pa.
Dear Sir,

I have just read Mr. S. S. Myers' letter to the News and of course to the public.

I have always been opposed to capital punishment but I have somewhat changed my mind. I wish to refer Mr. Myers to the Bible. In Genesis 9:5 and 6, "And surely your blood of your lives will I require: at the hand of every beast will require it, and at the hand of every man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man. Whoso sheddeth man's blood by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man."

What I see in the murder of these two babies, the one in Michigan and the other in California, is this. Those babies as I see them have no judgment, they can't reflect as older ones would do, and they are hourly in danger, everywhere. If I was on a jury, I certainly would vote for capital punishment, and swiftly.

Sincerely,
J. W. MILLER,

LATIN-AMERICAN MUSIC.

Washington D. C. Jan. 18, 1928.
City Editor,
New Castle News.
Dear Sir:—

I have only just learned that the United States Army Band is to give a concert in New Castle on February 6, and as the organizatin has specialized in the music from the Latin-American Republics, I feel I should take this opportunity of bringing forward the fact that selections from these nations to the south will be featured.

The Army band is the only one in the world that posseses a repertoire of music from all the countries of the Americas. Securing it was not an easy task for the reason that in many of the lands the band arrangements are in manuscript form and it was therefore necessary to borrow them and have them copied. However over 400 different selections are now available and as musical ability is the outstanding talent of Latin Americans, numbers by their composers have made a deep impression on the music loving public of this country. I know this, for the Pan-American Union gave on December 20 its 39th concert made up exclusively of music from the other American republics and these concerts have all been broadcast. Letters have come to us from a wide range of territory asking for further information concerning the numbers and with requests that they be frequently repeated.

In loking over the Army band program I find that the afternoon concerts contain three Latin American numbers.

Gems from South America ("Ay, Ay, Ay," and "El Chiripa.")
March, "San Lorenzo."
Cuban Song, "Algun Dia."

The first, Gems from South America, is very popular all over the world. "Ay, Ay, Ay" is the well known Chilean composer, Perez Friere and "El Chiripa" is from Argentina.

I wish to mention here that the selection "Three O'clock in the Morning" which swept over the world a few years ago was also by a composer from Buenos Aires. The second number is named in honor of the great Argentine hero, San Martin, for the Battle of San Lorenzo was one of the decisive engagements in the struggle of the southern countries for independence. In the evening program there are three numbers. "El Condor Pasa," (The Condor Passes,) is one of the most popular selections in the Army band's repertoire and it is interesting to know that this number is probably the most ancient composition extant. It was passed down to the Incan peoples of the highlands of South America by even earlier peoples. This selection is one of the most popular "request" numbers, and has been played more times in our 39 concerts than any other selection. The dance "Jarabe Tapatio" is the popular number from Guadalajara, Mexico and the third on the list is a selection of waltzes from Bolivia which have been very popular in this country.

The Pan-American Union is very enthusiastic over this, the first tour of the Army band in this country for this talented organization of musicians under the capable leadership of Captain William J. Stannard has done more to popularize music from the American Republics than any other organization. Very truly yours.

FRANKLIN ADAMS,
Counselor in Charge.

The most famous drink of its kind in the world

. . . make the personal health test and find out why

. . . Find out why millions drink Postum every day, with every meal. Find out why these millions prefer Postum's flavor—why they consider Postum more satisfactory in every way than beverages containing the drug caffein.

Originally, many of these enthusiastic users were just as skeptical of Postum's goodness as you perhaps are. Then they tried Postum—made a personal health test—and were convinced!

Here's the test!

They used Postum as their mealtime drink for thirty days, in place of caffein beverages. They found that Postum offered all the enjoyment of other hot drinks—a rich, inviting aroma, a hearty, appetizing flavor all its own. They found that Postum, unlike caffein beverages, never robbed them of a minute's sleep, never flustered their nerves, or caused headaches and indigestion.

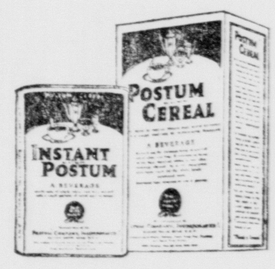

At the end of the thirty days, these Postum "skeptics" measured their physical gains—noted how much better they slept, how much better they felt. And then and there they outlawed caffein from their diet—Postum became their mealtime drink for life!

Try it yourself!

This month new thousands will take this same easy step to better health. Be one of them! Your grocer has Postum in two forms—Instant Postum, prepared instantly in the cup, and Postum Cereal, the kind you boil. Both are the same drink—made of roasted whole wheat and bran. Both have the delightful Postum flavor that millions prefer. Both cost much less than most other mealtime drinks.

Get Postum at your grocer's today—start the 30-day test!

Plan To Immunize City School Children Against Diphtheria

The medical department of the New Castle public schools is again ready to protect the children of the community from diphtheria is the announcement made this morning by Dr. Mildred Rogers, school doctor.

Last year wonderful work was done in the graded schools of the city, says Dr. Rogers, when over 52 per cent of the children were protected from the disease by innoculation. This is considered a large percentage for the first year in this work.

These splendid results were possible only through the co-operation of the citizens of New Castle, continues Dr. Rogers. In some of our neighboring cities, this work has been done for over four years, and a present almost every child is protected from diphtheria. Statistics show that this immunization against the disease has had marvelous results.

Beginning Monday, January 30, the toxin-anti-toxin treatment will be given to all children who were not immunized last year, and whose parents will sign consent slips. The state health department, through Dr. H. C. Harper and state nurses have been immunizing the county school children, so that each year, more of Lawrence county is protected from this disease.

A consent slip will be sent to the parents through the child, who will ask the mother or father to sign the slip. If for any reason the parent does not want the child to be immunized, he should state the reason on the slip and return it to the school with the child. The state health department, and the public schools of the city share the expense, so that it will cost the parents of the children nothing.

In the immunization process, a small amount of harmless fluid is injected into the arms of the children. Last year there were comparatively few who had sore arms. There is no danger connected with this protection. And it is not a cure; rather it is a preventative measure.

In New York state, says Dr. Rogers, immunization against diphtheria is compulsory, as is vaccination against smallpox in Pennsylvania. This movement is heartily indorsed by every member of the Lawrence County Medical Society.

Young People At Special Service In Third Church

Intermediates Attend Meeting Wednesday Evening; Able Message By Evangelist

Young people were much in evidence at the "Intermediate Night" Wednesday evening at the special evangelistic services which are being held each evening in the Third United Presbyterian church.

Dr. Smiley of Stubenville, O., who is assisting the pastor, Rev. S. B. Copeland delivered an able and forceful discourse on the theme "Lot's Wife or the Danger of Looking Back." After reviewing the story in a dramatic manner, Rev. Smiley pointed out three reasons why she looked back. First it was because that her home was in Sodom; second, she could not decide, she had not the power of decision; third she did not heed the warning that came to her.

Rev. Smiley closed his message with a plea to be ever on the alert and to heed the warnings that God gives to his people.

Selections by the male chorus and the echo choir were outstanding features of the evening.

This evening Rev. Smiley will preach a special sermon to young people it being "Young People's night." His subject will be "A Step at a Time." Friday evening will be "Family night." The family having the most members present will receive a recognition of some kind. The evangelist will speak on the subject "Excuses and Hypocrites."

Mrs. R. P. Wish of Edison avenue entertained at a luncheon bridge for members of the C. P. club Wednesday. A tempting menu was served and the hostess was assited by Mrs. J. W. Stinson.

"Big Bruiser" Losing Out To Smaller Men, Army Test Reveals

"Perfect Man" In Army Today Is But 5 Feet 6 Inches Tall; Weighs 139 Pounds

"Big Boys Nearly Always Out Of Proportion", Says Recruiting Officer

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Masculine physique is no longer measured in sheer poundage. The "big bruiser" is a bum when it comes to beauty contests.

Such is the edict of the Army Medical corps, in presenting to the nation Sergeant Herbert E. Smith, the "perfect man". Smith is but five feet six inches tall and weighs but 139 pounds. He is 37 years old—and married.

"Big men are by no means the best from the physical standpoint," said Major Arnold D. Tuttle of the surgeon general's staff. "Smith is described by his commanding officer, Major C. A. Pivirotto, in charge of the New York City recruiting service, as a perfect specimen, mentally, morally and physically. But his rating is not based on sheer physical power. Alertness, agility and that fine coordination of muscle and brain which characterizes robust health are far more important. Few big men are really sound. The great tackles and fullbacks are almost always ill-proportioned and over developed in some part of the body. They lack graceful carriage and often incline to be slow witted because of the great demands made by their enormous physical machines upon their energy."

Smith has brown eyes, dark brown hair with a tendency toward a permanent wave and a ruddy tanned complexion. He has never been subjected to disciplinary action during his ten years in the army and has never suffered a contagious disease. On each examination during his three enlistments since 1918, his eyesight, hearing and reflex responses have been 100 per cent. He was born in Greenwich Village.

Miss Glenn Returns From Convention

Tuberculosis Work In Next Years Will Be Centered On Negroes

Miss Della Glenn, executive secretary of the Lawrence County Tuberculosis society, returned Wednesday evening from Harrisburg, where she attended a two-day convention of the Pennsylvania State Tuberculosis society, with which the local organization is affiliated.

Next year, according to Miss Glenn, work on tuberculosis among the Negro population will be stressed as never before. Prevention work among Negroes has never progressed as it has among other people, and it is here that the society will center its efforts. There will also be a thorough examination of all contact cases and a tuberculosis census taken of all small industries in the state.

NAVY'S JOKE ON BRITAIN MAY COST THREE BILLION

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Washington Correspondent for Central Press and New Castle News

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—In asking Uncle Sam to begin work on a $3,000,000,000 navy, Congress takes it for granted that Secretary Wilbur is trying to bring John Bull to time—not that he really wants a $3,000,000,000 navy.

That's the whole tone of comment at the Capitol building.

There's considerable sympathy with Wilbur in his object.

His scheme for attaining it isn't so generally commended. The verdict is that it's too expensive. Only the merest handful of the very biggest navy-ites will even discuss it seriously. It's a good joke on England, they say, but too costly.

If John Bull imagines, however, that he's producing any impression on Congress by the remonstrant utterances of his newspapers, concerning the Wilbur plan, he's mistaken.

Congressional opposition to the plan isn't based on the ground that it would fret John Bull, but that Uncle Sam would have to pay for it. About all that John Bull's plaints are greeted with, on Capitol Hill, is ribald laughter.

To recall a little ancient history—In 1921-2 Uncle Sam offered to promise John Bull not to try to outbuild John's navy, if John would promise not to outbuild his (Sam's).

Inasmuch as Sam was then in the very act of outbuilding John (who couldn't help it, not having money enough) John agreed, with enthusiasm. Only, he suggested, let's leave 10,000-ton cruisers (of which it happened that Sam didn't have any) out of the bargain.

Sam fell for it.

The treaty signed, Sam proceeded to scrap millions of dollars' worth of nearly-finished battleships to get down to John's basis, and John began working overtime, building 10,000-ton cruisers.

* * *

Sam had a right to build 10,000-tonners, too, but he hated to. He'd intended to stop navy-racing and all he'd done was to change its form—besides being whipsawed—by his own boneheadedness, to be sure, but was it real friendly in John to take advantage of it?

Anyway, Sam managed to get another conference together, at Geneva.

"Now how about a 10,000-ton cruiser limit?" he suggested.

"Unfortunately," said John, "I have to have 'em to protect my trade routes. You don't need so many." (John was not well ahead again.)

Secretary Wilbur draws this conclusion—

To get Britain into a naval limitation agreement you have to have her outclassed so 'twill be to her advantage to have you reduce down to her level. When she has you outclassed—nothing doing.

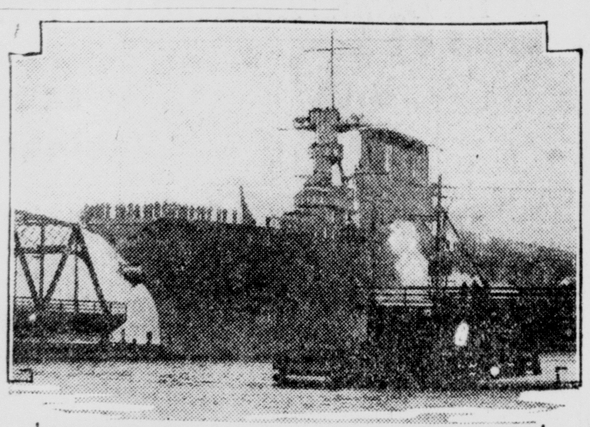

Wilbur figures that Sam will be in a position to talk turkey to John again when Sam has a $3,000,000,000 navy all but finished.

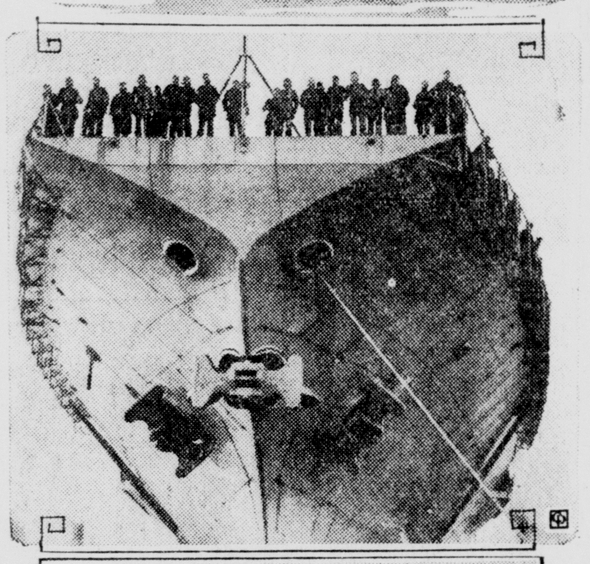

* * *

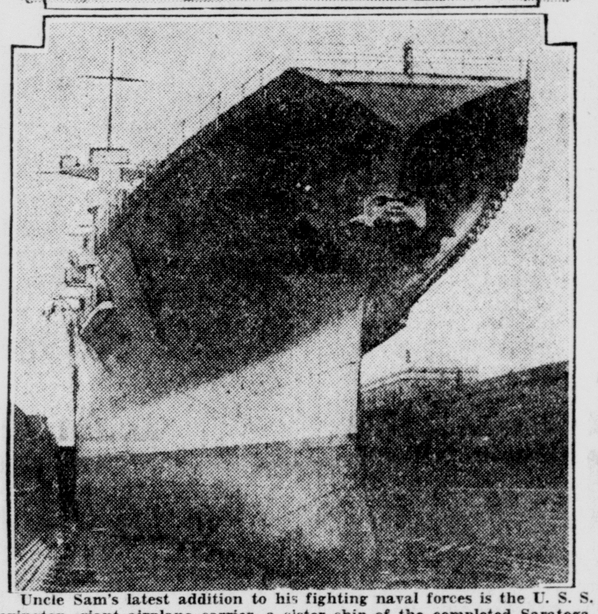

No doubt he's correct, but isn't $3,000,000,000 quite a lot for Sam to put up to induce John to abandon 10,000-ton cruiser racing?

"You bet it is," goes up the clarion cry from the Capitol.

"A pill," as Congressman T. Webber Wilson of Mississippi, himself a pretty good "adequate navy man," pointed out to me, "is an excellent thing when you need it, but 17 grains of calomel at one dose is excessive."

Uncle Sam's latest addition to his fighting naval forces is the U. S. S. Lexington, giant airplane carrier, a sister ship of the completed Saratoga. Top to bottom the pictures show the Lexington, with a 105-foot beam, squeezing through a drawbridge less than 115 feet wide at the Fore river shipyard, Massachusetts; center, a closeup of her "fighting face"; and below, in drydock at South Boston, Mass., getting the finishing touches before starting out on her "shake-down" cruise. Although these vessels originally were to be gigantic cruisers, which the Washington naval conference scrapped, it now is pointed out they are far more powerful units as plane carriers, which the conference permitted, due to the development of aircraft. The new naval bill calls for a large program of speedy 10,000-ton cruisers to supplement these plane carriers, causing British newspapers to protest against what they term the United States militaristic policy.

Make Check Of State's Schools

HARRISBURG, Jan. 26.—The State Council of Education has issued permits for the continuance of 522 schools for the school year 1927-1928.

The Legislature of 1919 passed an act requiring school boards in districts of the fourth class to close all one-teacher schools of the district having an average term attendance of ten or less.

In case the school board does not deem it feasible to close such a school, it may petition the State Council of Education for its continuance, providing the district meets certain requirements as to school plant and equipment. If the schools remain closed, the district is required to provide transportation for all children living one and one-half miles or more from the school to which they are assigned. The State reimburses the school district for a part of this transportation cost.

Two New Markets Will Be Opened

It will be of interest to the people of New Castle and its vicinity that The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company is opening two new and fully equipped meat market on Saturday January 28.

One of these markets will be in a new and larger store at 33 North Mill street while the other will be opened at the company's present location at 353 East Washington street.

No expense has been spared in fitting up the markets with the newest and finest equipment. All of the meats handled are purchased after personal inspection by an expert meat buyer.

The stores really present a fine appearance and should prove a welcome addition to New Castle's many fine business establishments.

Riding the girders—matching muscle against steel

But no stiff aching muscles for men of the Turner Construction Co.

WHETHER you're riding the girders a hundred feet up in the air, holding the drill, or tossing the red hot rivets—a construction man is using his muscles all day long.

Out in the open, too, mostly—sometimes in a biting wind or a chilling drizzle.

Unless you look out for yourself, your muscles are likely to get stiff and painful—or you find yourself laid up with a bad cold or an attack of rheumatism.

The men of the Turner Construction Company in New York are an especially fine, healthy-looking lot of men. We asked them what they do to keep in such splendid condition.

About half of them said, "Sloan's is our great standby."

It's the same everywhere on strenuous jobs

Active men and women on strenuous jobs all over the world have known for years that there is nothing like Sloan's Liniment for limbering up stiff muscles, for warding off the effects of exposure and for taking care of all sorts of minor injuries.

A painter tells this remarkable story of quick relief: "A severe pain came in my instep while I was on top of a roof painting. I was two and a half miles from home, and had to walk. How I suffered, no one knows. It was something terrible. A friend of mine gave me some Sloan's and by ten o'clock it commenced to quiet down and I rested well. The next morning I rubbed it on again. The way it hurt, I thought I never would be able to finish my paint job, but I went right out and walked the two and a half miles and the pain left me entirely and I finished my job." Frank Daton Hayes, St. Louis Park, Minn.

And read this story of relief from a painful injury:

"I tore a ligament loose in my hand. I tried other remedies, but none of them helped me, until I used Sloan's Liniment. It destroyed the pain completely. While I was trying other medicines I had to use my one hand, and by the time I found Sloan's it was very much fatigued so I applied Sloan's. In one-half hour it was all right. I wish you would inform everyone who is suffering. I cannot give Sloan's enough gratitude." Robert Whisler, 127 N. Benton St., Mansfield, Ohio.

One of the men of the Turner Construction Company who told us that they rely on Sloan's to keep their muscles fit for the job

Sloan's Liniment requires no tiresome rubbing. Just pat it on over the place where the pain is. At once you feel a pleasant, glowing warmth. Knotted tendons relax, stiffened joints limber up as fresh blood begins circulating through the aching spot. The pain stops because the cause is removed.

Get a bottle today—35 cents at all druggists. Then tonight, at the end of your day's work, try it and see for yourself what quick, genuine comfort it gives. Use it for:

Rheumatism Lame muscles
Sciatica Stiff neck
Lumbago Colds and
Neuralgia congestions
Sprains and bruises

Here's what a company doctor who cares for the ills of hundreds of working people every year says of Sloan's: "People whose work exposes them to strain or to damp and cold usually suffer from a good deal of muscular soreness. We find that Sloan's gives them quick, positive relief."

Many Fishermen Get Licenses For 1928

HARRISBURG, Jan. 26—The Board of Fish Commissioners reports that from the number of resident licenses issued up to this time it would indicate that it was the month of March and not January. Usually very few licenses are issued before the 15th of March.

The extremely good weather which prevailed for several weeks brought out a host of sucker fishermen and good catches were made. Flies have been reported over some of the trout streams and all indications point toward a mighty good opening of the trout season.

With the opening of spring weather the board expects to start construction work on the two new sites purchased for hatcheries in Forest and Bedford counties and with the increase in the resident license fee from $1.00 to $1.50 a great progress should be made on these two sites.

Barn Fire Check Reveals Decrease

HARRISBURG, Jan. 26.—The bureau of fire protection, a division of the Pennsylvania State Police, report a decrease in number of barn fires in central and western Pennsylvania. In eastern Pennsylvania districts a large number of barn fires have been investigated, resulting in the conviction in several cases where fires were of incendiary origin. Farmers have been requested to communicate with the bureau of information regarding removal of hazards in storing crops.

SLAYER'S TRAIL ENDS IN PRISON

Marquette prison, at Marquette, Mich., marks the end of a trail which led from Mt. Morris, Mich., home of five-year-old Dorothy Schneider, to Owosso, Mich., where her slayer, Adolph Hotelling, was captured, to Flint where he was placed in jail and Ionia reformatory where Gov. Fred A. Green ordered him taken to avert a lynching. Returned next day to Flint, sentence was passed and Hotelling was rushed to Marquette to spend a lifetime expiating his crime.

News Of Bessemer; School And Town

NEW WILMINGTON GAME

Bessemer's tight defense was the outstanding feature of the game last Friday night with New Wilmington. The work of Serjak, Bessemer's giant Austrian guard, and Macklin, standing out especially in this respect. Henry Mack, Bessemer's "Nurmi" of the court, played his usual bank up game at the center position and in addition caged 3 baskets. Mack is Bessemer's scoring ace with 20 field goals to his credit so far. Snyder and Stanley, Bessemer's diminutive forwards played fine floor games and sank 6 baskets between them. Stanley, who was removed early in the second quarter came back strong in the last half and played a whirlwind brand of basketball.

GIRLS' GAME

One of the most interesting games of the season, played last Friday evening between New Wilmington and Bessemer resulted in a 42-28 victory for Bessemer.

At the very outset of the game the visiting team made three points and interest immediately rose to a high pitch. Bessemer girls soon found themselves and began to make baskets. By the end of the first half the score favored Bessemer by 27-13.

Closer guarding featured in the second half, each team scoring 15 points.

Local girls upset the dope by defeating the stronger team from New Wilmington.

Stanich, especially, by her cool easy playing won the admiration of the crowd. Each girl, however, did her part in making it a game of real interest.

FRIDAY GAME

Friday evening Bessemer is to have another game on the home floor. A game has been scheduled with the General Continuation School of Youngstown, O. The preliminary game has not yet been decided.

WAMPUM GAME

Saturday evening Bessemer boys will go to Wampum to play the team there. The spirit and cooperation of the students and townspeople toward the team have been excellent this year. It is hoped that a large number will accompany the boys on their second "away from home" game.

CHAPEL

For the second time this year Mr. McConnell had charge of the chapel exercises.

The first assembly he staged, it will be remembered, was on that eventful day when station "B.H.S." broadcasted its weekly program. Although this pioneer broadcasting station was silent last week, Mr. McConnell attracted the interest of the audience in a different manner, this time by taking them for a trip through an Art Gallery.

The pictures were excellent ones, all chosen from famous artists. "The Boy in Blue," "The Sower," "The Angelus," "Mother," and "The Spanish Dancer," were only a few of those presented.

Several of the pictures showed alarming symptoms of coming to life, one even going so far as to step down from the frame, and dance for the benefit of spectators.

In some unknown manner the characters from all the pictures congregated and were displayed in a group, at the close of the exhibit.

Our faculty songster, Miss Smith, entertained with several selections. Her first piece, "The Alice Blue Gown," was from "Irene." "The Silver Moon," and "Your Land and My Land" were both from the operetta, "My Maryland."

Two eighth grade girls, Mildred Bekoski and Julia Atanasoff sang, "Whispering Hope."

The orchestra, during the program played some new music that the students had not heard before.

There will be no chapel program this week because of semester exams. Next week Miss McLaughlin will present the program.

SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS

Once more electric bills increase as teachers work into the wee, wee, small hours making out exam questions.

Two examinations are scheduled for each of the three days, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

There are a few students who, because of the exemptions issued, are "sitting pretty," and have a vacation of those three days.

EXEMPTIONS

On Tuesday, January twenty-fourth the exemption list for the semester examinations were posted in the respective rooms.

Some of the lists were unusually large while others were very small. The Seventh Grade, due to its size headed the list with twenty seven exemptions. The Ninth Graders ranked next with twenty-six, while the Eighth Grade occupied third place with twenty-two. The Senior exemption list contained twelve names, and the Juniors eleven. The Sophomore class ranked last having but eight on the list.

The exemptions were based on grades and attendance. Those with an average of S or more, who had not been absent from school more than five days and whose absences were all legal, were eligible.

SENIOR RINGS

The usual excitement, aroused by something new, was prevalent when the rings of the Senior class arrived.

The rings are different from any that have been seen at the local high school. Fourteen boys and twelve happy girls are proudly displaying the new jewelry.

FEBRUARY "BE-HI."

Wednesday morning at 8:30 the fourth number of the "Be-Hi Record" will go on sale.

This edition is a February number and contains sketches of famous Americans whose birthdays are celebrated this month. Another feature of the paper is a History of Bessemer. The activities of the History Club will also be featured in this issue.

The staff hopes for a large sale of this edition of the "Record."

N. P. I. M. A.

Wednesday evening several representatives from Bessemer attended the conference of the N. P. I. M. A., in New Castle. The purpose of the meeting was to have discussion of the competition to be held during music week at Grove City.

HISTORY ACTIVITY

The History Club held its weekly meeting last Tuesday afternoon. Speeches were again given by different members of the club. A short play was presented to illustrate the story of Benedict Arnold and Major Andre. These little dramas are written up by the students and prove to be a source not only for entertainment, but also for education.

PIRATES PLAY LOWELLVILLE

The Bessemer Pirates played Lowellville on Tuesday evening. Bessemer team showed some very good pass work and the game was a close one. The final score was 38-32 in favor of Bessemer.

Gretna Green Smithy Holds 100 Weddings In Spite Of Law

GRETNA GREEN, Scotland, Jan. 25.—Over one hundred marriages were celebrated last year at the famous Grenta Green Smithy.

Although the smithy is no longer the haven of eloping couples as in days gone by it is still the home of romance.

The law has been altered since the old days when couples could be married simply by paying the smithy, and 21 days prior residence in Scotland is now necessary before a marriage can be legally performed.

Letter On Long Trip Follows Big Hunter Around The World

(International News Service)

LONDON, Jan. 26.—Just a year ago Lawrence West, an English big-game hunter, left London on an expedition round the world.

The day after he left a letter arrived for him. This letter followed him around the world, always a week behind everywhere, and has now been delived to him, still a week late, at a London hotel.

It has been re-addressed thirty-five times, is covered with stamps and postmarks, and has been placed in five fresh envelopes during the journey.

Pedestrians Have The Right Of Way

But They Seem To Have Difficulty In Getting It

Pedestrians have the right-of-way over vehicular traffic, according to the new motor code, except at crossings protected by traffic officers or lights. "But try and get it" seems to be the attitude of the ordinary motorist.

Richard C. Halderman, president of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation, says: "Accidents in which motor vehicles are victims of collision seem to be decreasing, but the killing of pedestrians continues in ever-increasing number. Operators of motor vehicles show a criminal disregard for the rights of people on foot. Confirmed horn-blowers rely upon the noisy clamor of these instruments to clear the way for them. The law is explicitly plain. Pedestrians have the right-of-way except at protected crossings. Motor vehicles have the right-of-way between crossings, but even then they must be careful."

According to the decision of Justice John W. Kephart of the supreme court, pedestrians have as much right on the highway as a motor vehicle. It is unfortunate that their efforts to get it are unsuccessful.

Dr. Appel Warns Of Monoxide Gas

HARRISBURG, Jan. 26. — Dr. Theodore B. Appel, secretary of health, today issued, because of continued reports of fatalities, another warning on the carbon monoxide menace.

He said: "In spite of repeated instructions automobile owners apparently are not alive to the carbon monoxide menace. This is proved by the almost daily accounts in newspapers of deaths attributable to that cause. It is high time for automobile drivers to realize that a cold motor is an efficient producer of carbon monoxide gas. A motor running for a very few minutes in a closed garage will generate enough of this product to kill. It is treacherous in its effect. The warning headache may not be felt until too late to get to the door. The victim falls unconscious with the motor still running, and the poison soon completes its work. Open the doors wide before starting your motor and never tinker in a closed garage with your engine while it is running. Be careful in this matter and avoid death."

Bad Lungs Healed Quickly

Mrs. R. R. Redenbaugh is another grateful friend of Murrmann's Compound the wonderful new lung remedy that gets marvelous results without containing any alcohol or narcotic drugs. She writes:

"My boy's lungs were in bad shape. He was bedfast for 11 weeks and was ordered not to go to school during the balance of the term. One of our neighbors told us about Murrmann's Compound and we began giving it to him. He commenced to gain at once. After taking two bottles he gained ten pounds. He returned to school after Christmas and continued to improve right along. The following spring we took him to a doctor and had his lungs examined and found that they were entirely healed. With the hope that this will encourage others who might be suffering from a similar complaint, I am gratefully yours."

Murrmann's is really a remarkable medicine. It also helps those troubled with Asthma, Bronchitis, etc. It is for sale by reliable druggists. If yours hasn't it he can quickly get it from the D. W. Price Company, Toledo, Ohio.

DANDRUFF
Soon Destroys the Hair

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. Four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

MILLIONS MAKE PLANS FOR TOURS

Estimate 44,000,000 Persons Will Join Auto Tours During Summer

More than forty four million people, over a third of the nation, will take vacation motor tours during 1928 and will spend the staggering sum of three and a half billion dollars, according to preliminary estimates of this year's motor tourist business made public by Bernard N. Hanlon, manager of the New Castle Motor club.

The American Automobile Association figures for 1928, says Mr. Hanlon, are based on a detailed study of the 1927 season, with an allowance of ten per cent for this year; which is about the normal annual growth in the gigantic industry of motor touring over the past few years.

Approximtely forty million people, in ten million motor cars, took to the winding ribbons of paved highways for their vacation last year, Mr. Hanlon declares.

"One of the most impressive and important features of the motor tourist business in 1927," declares Mr. Hanlon, "was the trend away from the tourist camps and towards the hotels and tourists homes catering to motorists. The latter enjoyed a heavier business than in the previous year, despite weather conditions that somewhat handicapped the annual vacation movement. In this trend, amounting to an increase of 12 per cent in business is seen a clear indication of the position of the resort hotel as a permanent fixture in the rest and play of life of the motorists."

Credit Exchange Brings New Plan Of Trading Method

How the modern credit exchange has completely revolutionized the old fashioned methods of trading, and particularly among grocers, was explained this morning by Ray F. Hall, manager of the New Castle Credit Exchange.

"Not so long ago," declared Mr. Hall, "most all dealing, and particularly with grocery stores, was done on the old fashioned rural methods. To illustrate this, we will take the farmer. He must sell something before he can pay for the things that he buys. And many people living in urban communities also had to sell things before they could pay for what they bought.

"The credit exchange system thrucut the country has changed all this. Now, when a man buys an article from any merchant, he must pay the bill when he contracts to pay it else he will be listed at the exchange as "bad pay" and this will be told to other merchants who ask for credit information about him. And the chances are that these other merchants, when they hear that the man is "bad pay" will refuse to extend him credit.

"A credit manager is generally thought to be hard boiled, or at least that is what I find. And it is all because people think that he prevents them from opening charge accounts. In reality, a credit manager is a friend of the people, for he only stops their credit when he finds that they have over-bought. In that way, he saves them from themselves.

"But more than anything else, it is the easy merchant who causes people to get into bad shape financially, when he consciously allows them to overbuy. And the people must be watched, for they have gotten used to easy credit. That is another job of the credit exchange."

Appeals His Case To Higher Court

Petition for a certiorari was filed this morning in county court, in the case of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania against Frank Zinger.

Defendant claims that on January 14, 1928, an information was made before Alderman Hamilton by County Detective William G. Fleming, charging him with possessing firearms, being an unnaturalized citizen. Following a hearing he was fined $25 and costs. Zinger denies that he was guilty of possessing firearms, and claims that there was no finding of fact on which to base a fine of $25. Judge James A. Chambers granted the writ and the case will be heard by court.

The Famous "Wagon Box Fight"—VII
The Charge Of The Sioux

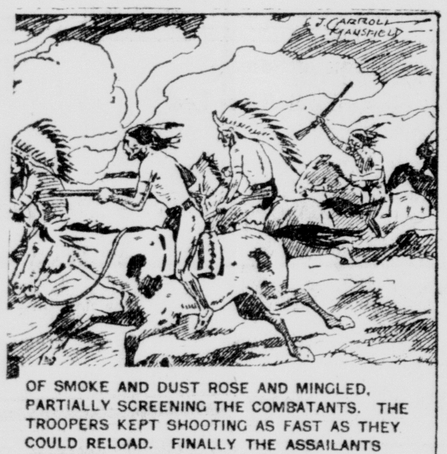

PEERING THROUGH THE LOOPHOLES CUT IN THE SIDES OF THE WAGON BODIES, POWELL'S MEN SAW FIVE HUNDRED SIOUX BRAVES RIDE OVER THE NEAREST RISE AND WITH EAR-SPLITTING YELLS GALLOP TOWARD THEM IN A WILD CHARGE. IT WAS AN APPALLING SIGHT.

ON THEY CAME AT A DEAD RUN, YELLING, THEIR PAINTED BODIES GLISTENING, FEATHERED WAR BONNETS STREAMING IN THE WIND. ONE HUNDRED YARDS!—FIFTY YARDS!!—CAPT. POWELL GAVE THE SIGNAL TO COMMENCE FIRING.

A LURID SHEET OF FLAME LEAPED FROM THE BARRICADE AND BOWLED OVER THE FOREMOST RIDERS AND THEIR PONIES. THE INDIANS TURNED AND RODE AROUND AND AROUND THE RING OF WAGON BODIES, KEEPING UP A STEADY FUSILLADE. DENSE CLOUDS

OF SMOKE AND DUST ROSE AND MINGLED, PARTIALLY SCREENING THE COMBATANTS. THE TROOPERS KEPT SHOOTING AS FAST AS THEY COULD RELOAD. FINALLY THE ASSAILANTS RODE OFF, LEAVING NEARLY HALF OF THEIR NUMBER LYING ON THE FIELD.

TOMORROW—THE DISMOUNTED ATTACK.

Oil Inquiry Is Recessed

Teapot Dome Oil Investigation Recesses Until Next Tuesday Morning

PRINCIPALS ARE TIGHT-LIPPED

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—A long and devious trail, lined with million-dollar deals but paced by men with sealed lips, today confronted Senator Thomas J. Walsh, the senate's "oil prosecutor," in his search for a $3,060,000 Liberty bond fund of the defunct Continental Trading company of Canada.

The inquiry, directed toward learning whether any public officials shared in the Continental company's largess during the days when the nation's great oil reserves were being leased, ran into a series of pitfalls. The five men who organized the company, and who, in all probability, could tell about these bonds, have sealed their lips while four of them have fled the country. The fifth, Harry F. Sinclair, faces trial on a charge of conspiring to defraud the government, while those who went away were Robert E. Stewart, H. M. Blackmer, James E. O'Neil, all oil men, and Henry Smith Osler, a Canadian attorney.

Sinclair Big Buyer.

The new inquiry revealed that Sinclair himself handled $8,198,638 in Liberty bonds in the hectic oil days of 1922 and 1923. These bonds were purchased by his personal Hyva corporation and while the books showed none were disposed of during those years, the actual bonds were in Sinclair's possession. The senate public lands committee, backing Walsh, will seek to trace those bonds to and from the hands of Sinclair.

Another development of the inquiry was testimony by Nathan C. Lanfestey, cashier of the National City bank of New York, that his institution handled $1,734,000 in interest payments on Liberty bonds, of which $215,000 was paid to the account of James E. O'Neil, now a resident of Europe. Walsh announced he would seek to learn whether public officials received any of the other $1,519,000 of interest payments. The face value of the bonds, which piled up these interest payments, it was computed, would total nearly $50,000,00. O'Neil's share of the interest, it was added, would come from over $6,000,000 worth of bonds.

A million dollars worth of Liberty bonds, owned by H. M. Blackmer, also a present resident of Europe, are now being traced by federal agents, Walsh announced. Records of these bonds were located in a New York oank.

The inquiry stood in recess today until next Tuesday. Subpoenas were sworn out for a new batch of witnesses to appear on that day.

Girl Is Awarded $12,000 For Leg

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Jan. 26. — When a leg of a pretty girl is broken, a Fayette county jury, which for the last few days had heard the case of Marion Connelly, high school girl, against Lewis Curry, a 12-year-old automobile driver, believes that she should receive a compensation of $12,000.

At least that is the amount of the verdict they returned in favor of Miss Connelly. The victim was walking along the sidewalk near her home when she claims Curry's machine struck a truck and then ran up on the sidewalk and hit her.

Campaign Headquarters For Senator Reed Of Missouri Opened

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The candidacy of Senator James A. Reed of Missouri for the Democratic presidential nomination was out in the open today with the establishment of a campaign headquarters in Washington.

Reed will press a vigorous campaign, although he will not contest for New York state, which he concedes to Governor Al Smith.

Reed will not file for re-election to the senate.

The announcement makes Reed the only candidate out in the open against Smith.

Lee Meriweather of St. Louis, vice chairman of Reed's campaign committee, issued a statement formally placing Reed in the race.

Will Keep Records Of All Students

New System To Keep Track Of Work Of Commercial Students At High School

A new filing system to keep a check on all students enrolled in the commercial course at the senior high school during their four years in high school and for several years following their grauation from the school has been placed in operation at the school according to H. D. Book head of the commercial department.

This system, Mr. Book states, is merely being used to endeavor to determine the value of the courses of instruction being taught at the school and to determine what changes should be made if any.

In conjunction with the system letters will be sent out in the near future advising merchants of the new and up-to-date check being kept on all commercial students. This letter will inform the merchants of this city that there are students enrolled in the commercial course who, they believe, are well equipped to handle positions such as stenographer, bookkeeper or clerk in any business office or store.

But the letter goes on to state that there are some commercial graduates who make passing grades in their work and consequently have to be promoted but that their work and perhaps their personal qualifications are not such as would enable the instructors to recommend them to a responsible position in any place of business and it is the desire of the school officials that they be given an opportunity to recommend a student who happens to be a graduate of the commercial course from the local school.

This check although it will be practically complete in most every detail, will be kept only on the better students and not on those who do failing work.

Personal qualifications as well as the student's scholastic standing will be recorded also. This division of the check will be obtained from the student's teachers who will be in a position to pass on the individual's various qualifications.

CHAMBERLIN TO CONTINUE TRIP

Famous Flier To Make New Attempt To Fly Over Pennsylvania

(International News Service)

ALTOONA, Pa., Jan. 26.—Clarence Chamberlin, trans-Atlantic aviator, was scheduled to leave here by train today for Mifflin, where he will pick up his tiny Sperry bi-plane, and continue the 30,000 mile tour he is making in the interest of commercial aviation.

Chamberlin was forced to land in the Mifflin ball park yesterday when head winds encountered on his projected trip from Harrisburg to this city, became so strong his tiny plane was unable to surmount them.

The intrepid aviator landed twice. The first time, forced down by a snow storm, he awaited a half hour at Newport, until the storm abated. The second time he was unable to battle the head winds, and descended at Mifflin.

The airman said it was the hardest fight he ever tried. He estimated he spent an hour and thirty-five minutes in covering one ten mile stretch. It took him almost an hour to make the first 29 miles of the hop.

Sandy Lake Has Epidemic Of Fever

SANDY LAKE, Pa., Jan. 26.—The typhoid fever situation at Sandy Lake is rapidly growing to an epidemic stage, there having been two deaths so far attributed to the disease, with 12 more cases of the disease isolated at the present time in nine different families. The first case of the disease occurred about six weeks ago, shortly before Christmas. Several of those ill are in a serious condition.

Samples of the drinking water from several homes have been sent to Harrisburg for analysis, but so far the report on them has not been received.

A contaminated milk supply is believed by some residents to have been the cause, since most of the cases seem to have arisen among users of milk from a single source, it is said.

The first person to contract the disease was John Laur, who died about a month ago. Mr. Laur had been out of town for some time but came home not feeling well, contracted the disease and died a short time later.

The second death occurred yesterday morning, when Arthur J. Tribby, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tribby, succumbed to the disease.

Your home is not where you leave your clothes off, but where you lay off your cares.

CARRY CHILDREN THROUGH FLAMES AS HOUSE BURNS

VANDERGRIFT, Pa., Jan. 26.—Nine children were carried through flames to safety, six members of two families narrowly escaped death and damage estimated at $4,000 was caused when fire of undetermined origin gutted a frame house on Kepple Hill, Parks township, near here.

While scores stood by helpless to combat the blaze, flames, fanned by a high wind, razed the building. Lack of water and impassability of roads to fire trucks made fighting the fire impossible.

The building was owned by Frank Kubic and occupied by the families of Andrew Deenes and S. F. Patrick. The building and its contents were a total loss.

Deenes and Patrick carried nine children to safety.

INCREASE POLICE FORCE TO ARREST "JACK THE GRABBER"

MT. PLEASANT, Pa., Jan. 26.—Officers have been added to the police force here in an effort to apprehend "Jack the Grabber", an unknown man who has been terrorizing the women of this community by unexpectedly grasping them as they pass in the streets after dark.

His efforts are not confined to street attacks, however, as attempts have been made to gain admittance to residences when the members of the family were absent.

Women are afraid to leave their homes at night and doors are kept securely locked.

The establishment of an air line between Constantinople and Bagdad is now under consideration by the Turkish government.

A. A. Union Fails To Change Peltzer's Status

Famous German Runner Must Obey Regulations

Until Herr Doktor Applies For Permit No Action To Be Taken

MAY BE ENTERED IN THREE MEETS

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—It may be of interest to those progressive souls who are making ready to promote themselves into a large evening next month that the status of the Herr Doktor Peltzer as a foreign amateur runner without official toleration, has remained absolutely without change, in spite of interpretations to the contrary.

This statement is not mine. It is the exclusive property of Daniel J. Ferris, secretary-treasurer of the A. A. U. and a member of its suddenly important foreign relations committee, and it was made to me today by way of clearing up what was declared to be a "false impression", gained in some quarters. According to Ferris, the matter of a permit to Peltzer has not yet even been discussed by the committee to date and will not be discussed until such time as the Herr Doktor complies with regulations.

No "Understanding" Reached

There has been no vote, says Ferris. No "understanding" among members of the committee as to what will be done in the event that the Doktor comes to time like a little gentleman. It seems that the boys merely were getting their ante into the pot on Tuesday.

Frankly, the writer can see no other course for the committee but to tell Peltzer that he may run in the three meets under consideration. But, then, I am not on the committee and Ferris is. It is interesting, therefore, although not necessarily final, that he thinks the matter is far from settled.

Outlines Rules

"All we did on Tuesday was to outline the regulations that had to be complied with before Peltzer could apply for a permit to run," Ferris declared. "We said that, when he had done so, we would then consider his application. How, then, can it be said that we had given him a permit or would give him one? We didn't vote on the question; we didn't sound out individual views. Nobody said that, in the event that Peltzer complies with a strictly formal request, let's permit him to run.

"So far as I personally know, the individual members of the committee feel just as they did before we met."

If that were so, then two votes, those of Gustavus Kirby, New York, and Joseph B. Maccabe, Boston, still stand against Peltzer's appearance on any American track. If it were so, then Joseph Reilly, Brooklyn, will not vote for Peltzer until the latter promises to run in the national indoor championships. Ferris has not committed himself, but it is understood that Avery Brundage, Chicago, and Robert Weaver, Los Angeles, remaining members of the committee, favor the proposed three competitions for the German.

To Meet Saturday

The available members of the committee, expecting to have the Peltzer data in hand by that time, probably hold a final meeting in Boston on Saturday. To the affirmative votes of Brundage and Weaver probably will be added those of Ferris and Reilly and everything will be Jacob.

At least, that would seem to be the logical procedure; in fact, the only one. So long as good, common horse sense remains an American virtue, I don't see how the boys can do otherwise. The point, however, is that at least one member of the committee can see his way clear to intimating that they might.

Sharkey Signs To Meet Johnny Risko

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Cauliflower row rippled with merriment today at the expense of Jack Sharkey, the Boston heavyweight who signed for a match with Johnny Risko under the impression that he would be given a crack at Gene Tunney's title without further ado if he eliminated the Cleveland baker.

Sharkey, who has just realized that he signed exclusively for the Risko fight, was left holding the bag. He must either meet the Delaney-Heeney winner or step out of the parade, according to McMahon.

Fans To Accompany Solomon To Battle

New Castle Welterweight To Fight Jack Barry Of Pittsburgh

ERIE, Pa., Jan. 26—Many New Castle fans will take the drive to Erie Friday night to witness the boxing card being staged by Tommy Maxwell, former New Castle boy, on which will be Mickey Soloman, junior welterweight, who is fast making a "rep" for himself. Mickey mingles with Jack Barry of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Other bouts on the card shows Johnny Ryan, Erie's bantam sensation, meeting "Midget" Mike Moran, also of Pittsburgh. Ryan looks like a coming champion with wins over Johnny Vacca, Johnny Dunn, Sammy Fuller, Pancho Dencio, while Moran has already fought six champions in Bud Taylor, the late Pancho Villa, Abe Attel Goldstein, Charley Phil Rosenberg, Frankie Genaro and Benny Bass.

Johnny Carey, Erie's ace among welterweights and a possible opponent for Soloman should Mickey get over Barry, meets a tough one in Nick Susnell of Rochester, Pa. Nick has been going great of late and should give Carey a whale of a fight..

Freddie Boylestein, one of the best boys in the state, meets Larry Brignolia, newest star of Erie, and Mike Mulligan of Erie meets Young Amons of New Kensington.

The first bout goes on at 8:30 sharp and those wishing to make the trip can do so and be back in New Castle by midnight or shortly after. The roads are exceptionally good and Mickey advises he will have his rooters at the ringside.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

By ED. FRITZ

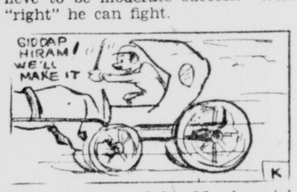

A-HEM! Young Buffalo is in. He wants to shave El-The Mighty with a pair of boxing gloves, providing Mournful Andy Coran of Cleve- and doesn't turn the Bearded Boy for a flipflop Monday night. "Have someone slip me 50 Smackers," said Buffalo today, and "I'll horn him so quick and fast Elmo will race for the side-show." Years ago Young Buffalo liked to dally with the padded mitts but lately he has been an ironworker. According to his friends, he runs up and down the ladder at the new bank building and juggles a small iron beam for exercise. He doesn't drink, chew or smoke and claims he is ready to "go" any time Mister Jolly, the throttleman, pulls the whistle.

Apparently Willyum Jolly is wont to exercise a woman's prerogative; that is, change his mind whenever he takes a notion, and as Bill is furnishing the bankroll to educate the populace in the Art of Busting Noses, far be it from us to tell or attempt to tell him what to do, as many others are doing that, we understand. But Willyum a few days ago told us Stanley Simmons of Pittsburgh would battle Jackie O'Connell of Cleveland but today he stepped into the ring and in the same tone of voice and with the identical gesture that Joe Humphreys uses at Madison Square Garden, announced: "Next Monday night Red Jadenburg of Jamestown, N. Y., and Jack Herman of Cleveland." There is a local touch of color to this fight.

NOT so long ago we suggested that George Perotta be matched to fight Jack Herman but when the Throttleman at the Old Armory discovered Perotta had many fistic engagements to fill, our suggestion was given the air. And now since Red Jadenburg has been mated with Herman, let us say that to the best of our belief, George put the dream kiss over on Red not so long ago. Should Herman do likewise the promoter here can secure a "natural" for the fans by booking Perotta. George had a bright future here but he fell in with companions who "done him dirt" by helping to lead him astray from training. He left town and since going to Erie has enjoyed what we believe to be moderate success. When "right" he can fight.

The other two fights Monday night will be between Mike Schreck, who whipped Paul Rowe last Monday night, and Tony Casper of Cleveland and Jimmie Kirkpatrick of Ellwood City versus Joe Curley of Cleveland. All of them have a knockout punch and while speaking of dream kisses let us state that every show at the Old Amory has been featured by knockouts. In the short six-round battles the fighters know they can step fast for six sessions and snap into it. Of course there is no class but art can't be bought for a couple of dollars. The fans who patronize the Old Armory apparently want action and from what we've seen they're getting it quick and often. The card for Monday night looks like blood and thunder. Fans who want to get a good seat had better "step on it" or use the whip on Hiram.

THERE are some men, even in professional boxing, where words are merely expended air and promises less, who keep their word and promises and such a chap is Tom Maxwell, formerly of New Castle now the main boxing [illegible] of Erie. Last summer while stopping at the Reed house, which is owned by Saul Leff, we met Maxwell and he asked: "Name three boys in New Castle you can recommend as having promise and who would make a good fight at my club." We mentioned Kid Cangie, Emmett Rocco and added that Mickie Solomon, though young, would put up a good fight if matched equally. Tom offered Rocco a bout but he was too busy to accept. Cangie left town suddenly and now Solomon has been mated to box Jack Barry, Friday night on a card to be featured by Johnny Ryan of Erie and Mike Moran of Pittsburgh. Tom is making money and as long as he doesn't expend sweet nothings and make promises to break he will continue to be successful. A crowd of fans intend to accompany Solomon to Erie. Barry is a good fighter and has experience on Mickie.

"Gee, from the way that guy takes your dollar you would imagine he gets to keep it," said an autoist a few days ago after he had handed a nice, crisp one dollar bill to Sergeant Frank Jones because he left his car in one spot too long and got caught at it. When he entered Jones' office the latter looked up, smiled and upon reading the tag, remarked: "One dollar, please." After getting the money and handling it like a mother handles her first born, the sergeant beamed like an electric sign when he remarked: "Thank you, come again." Isn't that nice, folks. You pay a dollar fine and he says: "Thank you, come again."

SPRING is only two months away and officials of the Ohio-Pennsylvania baseball league are making their plans for the coming season. They are anxious to have New Castle retain its franchise in the league but it is not likely that New Castle will be a loser when the roll is called. "What is the use of being in a league where rules are not enforced?" was the sum and substance of a statement made by Carm Sacco, business agent, recently. "Buzzard went to Beaver Falls, and what kind of a break did we get? No, I think that New Castle club directors will decide to keep out of the league this summer," said Sacco.

REISELT WINS THIRD BLOCK FROM DENTON

Otto Reiselt, Philadelphia, defending champ, was in great form at Philadelphia last night and won the third straight block of his 300 point match from Tiff Denton, Kansas City 60 to 33 and this gave Reiselt a lead of 62 points at the finish.

HAHN SCORES HIS SEVENTEENTH RACE

Lloyd Hahn, middle distance runner kept his string of consecutive victories intact last night at Newark by beating a fleet field in the 1,000 yard Butler Memorial race at the St. Joseph's track at Newark. Hahn's time was 2:14 4-5.

New Castle high school basketball team with six straight victories in Section III, and at the present time leading the loop by margin of a single game over Butler high, will play at Ellwood City on Friday night.

The locals since their elevation to the top-rung of the section have taken a new lease on life and are now determined that they will strive hard to repeat their performance of last year when they rode the wings of victory to the Western Pennsylvania championship through a series of hard games at Pittsburgh.

New Castle is looking for a hard battle at the Ellwood City floor on Friday night. Well do the Red and Black passers realize that they have their work cut-out for them tomorrow night. Coach Peck Lee has a crew of basketball players at Ellwood City this year that have been in-and-outers, that is to say Ellwood City high has looked good against the stronger teams, but were off color in some of their early sectional battles. The recent feat of holding Butler to a nine point margin on the Butler court would indicate the strength of the "Tubers."

The New Castle high girls team will play the Ellwood City high maidens in the preliminary game tomorrow night. The Ellwood City girls are coached this year by Miss Sara McGoun of New Castle, former New Castle high star, and they are reputed to be the class of the valley. The locals will have to watch this Irene Ross rather closely, she only caged 33 baskets against Zelienople.

Youngstown South Here Saturday To Play High Quint

On Saturday night, January 28, the New Castle high school basketball team will play the South high team of Youngstown, Ohio, at the Senior high gym floor.

The Youngstown team this year is composed of practically all football players, and the fans here can remember the work of Koken, Nasman and others in the football game the past fall.

The New Castle boys are quite confident of taking the highly touted Youngstowners into camp here Saturday night. It will be the initial appearance here of a Youngstown quintet in the past number of years, and the game is attracting quite some attention.

A Golfing Genius — By Feg Murray

The man behind the huge annual indoor athletic carnival known as the Millrose Games, in which so many world's records have been set, is quite naturally an athlete himself and a man whose athletic career has been so wide and varied as to make him invaluable in arranging the biggest indoor track meet of each season.

John G. Anderson, who, as chairman of the athletic committee of the Millrose Athletic Association, has attended to all the details and scouted the country for the best track and field talent available for the club's annual games, which will be held in Madison Square Garden on February 2, has an enviable athletic record in four sports. At Amherst he was a member of the cross-country and baseball teams, and captain of the basketball team, but it is in golf that the name of Anderson is so well known in England, France and America, because of the fact that he has been a tournament player for a quarter of a century and has amassed the prodigious total of nearly 400 first prizes, including more than 50 recognized championships.

Back in 1903 Mr. Anderson first attracted notice by winning the Western Massachusetts golf title. In 1911 he was a finalist in the French amateur tournament and in 1913 and 1915 he reached the last round in the United States amateur. In 1924 and 1926 he won the French amateur championship. Included among his other honors are those of being chosen on the Leslie Cup team for 21 years and representing the United States against Canada in 1918 and 1919.

There's very little this man Anderson doesn't know about golf—or putting on indoor track meets!

Feg Murray Says—

"That's my story and I'm gonna stick to it," moaned the sporting writer as he sat down on his paste-covered copy.

Marks Resigns As Kiski Grid Coach

Coach Of Many All-American Football Players Hands In Resignation

(International News Service)

SALTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 26.—Prof. James L. Marks, dean of the Kiskiminetas Preparatory school, known in an athletic manner as Jim Marks, developer of the famous Kiski football teams since 1915 and one of the most successful mentors in prep school ranks, has resigned.

Students took some comfort out of the fact that he will act as advisory coach while devoting most of his time to his duties as dean.

Marks probably turned out more all-American stars than any other coach in the country. His proteges include Harry Stuhldreher, one of the Notre Dame "four Horsemen" and at present coach at Villanova College; Tom Davies, Jimmy Dehart and Herb Stein, of Pitt; Bartell of Princeton; Schwab of Lafayette; Russ Stein and Bill Amos of Wash-Jeff.

Marks graduated from Wash-Jeff in 1907, he never played the gridiron game he coached.

Bob Mitinger, Marks' assistant, will move into the head coaching job. He is a Greensburg attorney. He played football at Kiski and Lafayette.

Trade School Five Defeats Juniors

The New Castle trade school boys defeated the Junior A team of Senior high school, 30 to 21, in a game played at the Ben Franklin High court.

Johns, with six field goals, was the big scorer of the game. The score at the end of the first half favored the Junior A team 14 to 11. The trade school quintet came through with a brilliant attack in the final periods to take the victory.

The summary:

Trade School 30		Junior A 21
Johns	F	Weir
Jenkins	F	Mackey
Stewart	C	D. Vago
Watson	G	Delaney
Shook	G	Smith

Subs.: Mariacher, Owens, Wray, Soyring. Field goals: Johns 6, Jenkins 3, Stewart 2, Shook, Weir 3, Mackey 3, D. Vago 2, Delaney 2. Fouls: Trade school, 6 out of 16; Junior A, 1 out of 9. Referee: Rachoppa. Umpire: Jewell.

Chicago Fans Want Army Game For Fall

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—Chicago wants to see the Army football eleven in action here this fall. The city was officially on record to that effect today in the form of a letter written by Mayor William Hale Thompson to Secretary of War Davis.

Army is known to be on a quiet hunt for a worthy foe to fill the date formerly reserved for Navy. Nebraska and University of Chicago, it is said, are being considered by athletic officials at West Point. Coach Stagg of Chicago, however, would have to cancel one game to accommodate the cadets, as his card is filled.

The annual lawn tennis tournament for the Southeastern championship will be held at Jacksonville, Fla., the week of March 12.

Greensburg, Pa., Fans See Big Future For Glenn Ropp, Who Won 24 Games In A Row

By NORMAN E. BROWN
Staff Writer for Central Press and New Castle News

GREENSBURG, Pa., Jan. 26.—Fans of the Pennsylvania League who saw young Glenn Ropp win 24 games in a row for the Greensburg club last season, are predicting a big future for him as he marks time, preparatory to joining the Brooklyn Dodgers at their spring training camp at Clearwater, Fla.

And Brooklyn scouts who looked him over have paid him the compliment of being one of the most finished rookies picked up in some time.

Ropp, while claimed by Greensburg fans as a hometown boy, lives in Paulding, O., in the off season. He and his brother run a restaurant there. During the baseball months the brother has to burn the bacon at both ends.

In addition to winning two dozen games without a defeat last summer, Ropp pitched two nine-inning games in one day and won both of them. He broke into the outfield at times—on his off days, and wound up the year with a batting average of .324, which puts him in the hitting pitcher class.

Ropp is just another product of the Greensburg team, managed by Dick Guy, which has sent several youngsters to big time.

Frank Packard, 19-year-old third sacker of the Generals, is another 1927 player to go into faster company. Packard, at the end of the regular playing season of the Pennsylvania League was sent to the Pittsburgh Pirates. Later, he was transferred to the Buffalo club of the International League.

Packard, who was next to the youngest member on the team, began his baseball career two years ago with the Edgewood Club. He caught the fancy of Guy and was obtained for the "Generals" last spring. He led the league in batting with an average of .385. He connected for 29 doubles, 19 triples and 11 home runs.

Rambler Juniors Defeat Smiths'

The Rambler Juniors made it four straight games on the Lincoln-Garfield floor Wednesday night, when they defeated the Smiths, 26 to 15, in a hardfought game.

At the end of the first half the Ramblers were leading by a score of 7 to 3. The Ramblers were only once in fear of being overtaken by the Smiths, and this was at the start of the third quarter, when the Smiths surprised everybody, including themselves, by deadlocking the count at 9-9, but their attack was soon stopped when Neyman caged one from the center of the floor and Quarello caged one backwards from the court.

The playing of Neyman, Seneski and Quarello, both on the defense and offense, featured, while for the Smiths the work of DiThomas and DiMuccio was the best.

The summaries:

Sammy Mandell was one of the three ordered by the National boxing commission to defend his title within two months. Whoever is picked as his next opponent, it is a pretty safe bet that Mandell will come out on top. SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN

Jack Delaney will be one of the participants in the outstanding heavyweight battles staged this coming summer if it is numanly possible to build him into a ballyhoo position.

His most recent battles, the opponents selected for him and the outcome thereof, is a clear indication of this. And in addition there is the general knowledge that Rickard and his associates recognize the fact that Delaney's colorful style, his history, etc., will make up for a few shortcomings if he can establish any kind of a record against any kind of competition.

Delaney has already knocked out Sully Montgomery in 20 seconds and Jack Humbeck in six rounds.

Right now these victories may well be taken with a grain of salt by close followers of the fistic game. But let Delaney add four or five more to the list, regardless of their class, and the record will be printed in bold type as the logical reason why he should get a crack at Dempsey or Tunney or both.

Sully is a big lumbering second-rater. His main asset is his knowledge that the proper thing to do is to keep his long left stuck out in front to bother the other fellow. And the haymakers he shoots are round-house affairs—duck soup for a clever, shifty fighter to dodge.

Humbeck was another giant compared to Delaney. Jack weighed 178 pounds against him. Humbeck weighed 199. Twenty pounds is considerable poundage.

Humbeck had not the slightest idea of how to protect himself from Delaney's snappy left jab or his right uppercut. Delaney couldn't halt Johnny Risko with the jab. And half the time that Canadian Jack turned loose that right uppercut he left himself wide open to a more experienced and headier fighter.

The weak point in an uppercut is that it leaves the puncher open if it fails to connect or check the opponent.

Delaney's present popularity is almost sufficient to suggest an immediate battle of some importance for him—against Dempsey or Tunney. The only added good that can come from a long row of knockouts over second-rate opponents is a bigger gate. But that, in these days of high finance, is important. Much more so than when the main task of promoters was to stage the bout where police would not run the participants and spectators into the hoosegow before the fight ended.

When picking out the nervy brothers—the boys who are willing to put their heads in the lions' mouths and laugh sardonically, list Michael Gazella, Yankee infielder, among the brave ones.

Carried as a utility infielder on the most powerful team the league has boasted in years—and faced with the prospect of warming the bench again while Tony Lazzeri, Mark Koenig, Lou Gehrig and either Joe Dugan or Gene Robertson cavort about the various bags Mike steps up to Col. Jake Ruppert and says:

"Gimme more dough or Mike Gazella doesn't sign them papers." Probably it was "those", however, as a matter of fact, as Mike is a college boy.

Anyhow Mike, whose last year's uniforms are still brand new except for the seats of the trousers, just turned back the first contract sent him this winter with the terse comment—"and how much more?"

As a matter of fact this action on Gazella's part isn't ridiculous. For two reasons.

First of all Mike is a valuable utility player because he is of the type that can spend weeks idling away his time on the bench and then step into the middle of the fracas at a moment's notice and play an acceptable game at any infield position.

Secondly, Mike probably would rather play as a regular with some other ball club than sit in the shade and oblivion of the dugout as a Yankee. Having adopted baseball as an occupation it is but logical to suppose that Mike would like to work at it.

He no doubt figures that should Col. Ruppert and Miller Huggins feel that the Yankee bank roll won't stand another severe dent they will agree to a change of scenery for Mike, which might bring him the dough desired—and a regular berth. There are half a dozen clubs which could use Mike—and be durned glad to get him at a fair price and a good salary.

RUTH AND GEHRIG PLAN TO GO SOUTH WITH ROOKIE CLAN

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Babe Ruth and Buster Gehrig are all set to go south with the first batch of Yankee rookies. They will start for the training camp of the Yankees in St. Petersburg, Fla., on Feb. 24, in an effort to get their famous home run swing working perfectly by the opening of the season.

PIRATES SEND MUELLER TO INDIANAPOLIS TEAM

Walter Mueller who hit the first ball pitched to him in the National league for a home run has been released by the Pirates to the Indianapolis teom of the American association. He is an outfielder. He is the player who played with a "broken neck." Twice during his career he gave up baseball but was reinstated. He is a St. Louisian.

Floor Notes

The Casa Savoia Big Five won a forfeit game from the Trojans last night at the Savoia gym, when the Trojans failed to show up for the scheduled encounter. Only three of the Trojans put in their appearance. Tonight the Savoia Big Five will play at Masury, Ohio, with the Masury Juniors. The following players are asked to report at the Bullanos barber shop: Captain F. Marcella, Mash, Natale, Mancine, DiThomas, Faero, P.Gennock, Ciccone, Y. Marcella, F. Gennock and A. Gennock.

The Savoia Big Five have scheduled the Union High Alumni for a game at the House of Savoia gym on Friday night. The Savoia boys are going good this year and they expect to take the Union High Alumni quintet into camp.

The Rambler Juniors still need more game to fill their schedule, and would like to meet all fast Junior teams in the city and county. Manager Landolf would like to hear from the following teams for games: Falcon Midgets, Elks, Mahoningtown Aces, Castletons, and Italian M. E. Boy Scouts. For games call 5368-R and ask for Charles.

The Rambler Juniors have shown a big improvement in their play since "Bat" Parker, Liberty Five ace, has taken up the coaching job. The rough places on the Rambler squad have been smoothed over and they are out to make life miserable for the other junior teams in the city and county. The boys have won four straight and they are looking for new worlds to conquer.

The Colored Juniors would like to book a game with the Smiths' for Friday night of this week, or any other junior teams in the city or county. For games call 2189-R and ask for Tom.

The Rick-Overlands will hold an important practice session tonight at the Y. M. C. A. floor at 9:30 o'clock. It is imperative that all members of the team be present for this rehearsal.

TITULAR BALLYHOO IS IN FULL SWAY

Tex Rickard, aided and abetted by the newspaper scribes, have started the annual ballyhoo for the next heavyweight championship fight in which Gene Tunney will appear. Tunney expects to fight two matches one with Dempsey and the other against the survivor of Rickard's heavyweight elimination bouts.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—There was little or no trace of yesterday's uneasiness in the early trading in the stock market today. Stocks of the independent steel companies, the amusement companies and a few of the utilities and specialities, the latter including the biscuit baking companies, inaugurated a brisk forward movement at the opening of the market, and the recognized speculative leaders were well bought at a higher range of prices.

Spectacular mergers of independent steel companies, utility companies and theatrical properties commanded the attention of the financial district. Completion of the consolidation of Youngstown and Inland Steel Companies on the one hand and the Republic-Trumbull companies on the other, is expected eventually to result in a new combination of these and other companies rivalling the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, which now stands next to the U. S. Steel Corporation in resources and productive capacity. Youngstown sold up nearly 5 points at 106½. The highest price on record.

Fox Film A sold up about 2 points on announcement of the acquisition of a new chain of theatres by the management of the company and Loew's continued its aggressive advance to 63¾, also a record high price.

AUTHORSHIP OF BOOK QUESTIONED

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Authorship of Nan Britton's book "The President's Daughter," was questioned by Rep. John Tillman (D) of Arkansas, in a vigorous defense of the late President Harding on the floor of the house today.

Rising to urge passage of his bill to prevent publication of lewd magazine stories or books, Rep. Tillman characterized the book as "a blast from hell." He said he believed it was written by a man.

The sale of this book, published as the story of the unwed mother of a daughter of the former President, would be prohibited by his proposed law, Tillman said.

Too Many Radio Stations, Some May Be Halted

Many Broadcasting Stations In New York And Chicago May Be Abolished

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The federal radio commission may close many broadcasting stations in New York and Chicago, Judge Eugene O. Sykes, acting chairman, indicated to the house merchant marine committee today.

"There are entirely too many stations in those areas", he said.

"I wish some states which do not have their quota would apply for the wave length of some of these New York and Chicago stations, call for a hearing and see if they can get what they ask."

SORDS POINTS

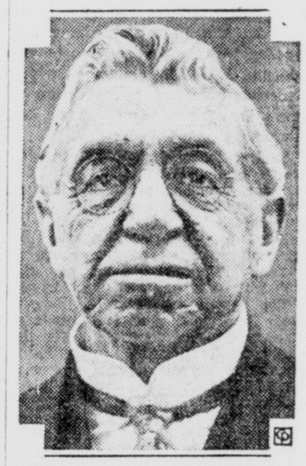

By JACK SORDS

Melvin Traylor, new head of the U. S. G. A., has risen to the presidency after a long period of notable achievements in the banking world, of which his elevation to the presidency of the First National Bank of Chicago at the age of 46 is outstanding. He is now 49 and his life is filled with hard work and efficient service. He was born in Kentucky, but spent the early days of his business career in Texas. Promotion brought him later to St. Louis, where he first became interested in golf. He never created much of a racket as a player, but is as enthusiastic as any who wander off the fairway.

Traylor was first vice president of the W. G. A. in 1923 and 1924 when Charles Pfeil was president, and was nominated to head the association in 1925, but the pressure of business would not allow.

He replaces as president of the U. S. G. A. the late Charles Pfeil, who recently died after being nominated to succeed William C. Fownes.

Coxey Himself

An assembly of farmers, in convention at Oklahoma City, Okla., heard "General" Jacob S. Coxey, hero of Coxey's army of unemployed who marched to Washington in 1894, declare it would be an impossibility to get 1,000 men to march on Washington today, but he believes if 100,000 farmers motored there en masse they could get favorable farm legislation.

BLOODHOUNDS LOSE TRAIL OF FIREBUG

WESTON, W. Va., Jan. 26.—City and county officers accompanied by bloodhounds returned to Weston after an all night fruitless search for persons suspected of having set fire to the Turner general store at Copley last night.

The building was destroyed with a loss estimated at $6,500.

Volant Woman To Receive Increase In Her Pension

By GEORGE H. MANNING
Washington Correspondent of The News

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 26.—Congressman J. Howard Swick of Beaver Falls has introduced pension increase bills for two widows of Civil War veterans.

Under the bills Mrs. Susan Wilson McCracken of Volant and Mrs. Isabel Reno of Rochester would receive increases in their present monthly pensions. Mrs. McCracken is the widow of Hugh McCracken, late of Company C, 100th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, and Mrs. Reno is the widow of William B. Reno, late of Company F, 10th Regiment, Pennsylvania Reserves Cavalry.

The bills have been referred to the House committee on invalid pensions for consideration. Approximately 5,000 similar bills have been introduced during the present session, and only a very small fraction will be acted upon. These bills must be reported favorably by committees of the House and Senate and passed by both bodies of Congress, then signed by the President, before they will become law.

DOCTOR'S BEQUEST IN WILL TO FRENCH CHILDREN, UPHELD

FRANKLIN, Pa., Jan. 26.—Dr. John K. Crawford's effort before his death two years ago to bequeath money to the "fatherless children of France," may yet succeed.

Judge William M. Parker has ruled that the $63,418 of the estate allotted under the unusual provision of Crawford's will was thoroughly legal and set aside the appeal of brothers, sisters and nephews to share in the amount.

Judge Parker sustained former Judge George S. Criswell's ruling as trustee under the will. During his lifetime, the Cooperstown physician had cared for about 20 French orphans, sending amounts regularly for their upkeep. It is believed he had these in mind when he made the bequest.

Judge Parker cited other opinions which would prove Dr. Crawford's desires entirely legal.

Lindy Lands In South America

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

CARTAGENA, Colombia, Jan. 26.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, piloting his famous "Spirit of St. Louis" plane, arrived here at 1:45 o'clock this afternoon for his first landing on the continent of South America.

Virtually the entire population of Cartagena was on or in the vicinity of the landing field to see the young American aerial ambassador bring his silver-gray plane to earth, and the first touch of the pneumatic-tired wheels on South American soil was the signal for a roar of cheering which drowned out the sound of the airman's motor.

Hunt For Bullet In Man's Body

VANDERGRIFT, Pa., Jan. 26.—Doctors are still hunting the bullet which Mrs. Elizabeth Andring is alleged to have fired into her husband, Fritz, a month ago. The wound is there but the bullet cannot be found.

Other joys of Andring's marital existence are: Held under bond for liquor law violations; his wife, to whom he is reconciled, held under $1,000 bail for felonious assault, preferred by Fritz' mother, Mrs. Katherine Andring. Uncle Nick furnished the bail.

Wife Of Witness In Burns-Sinclair Contempt Trial Slugged; Letter Stolen

CAPITAL POLICE ON INTENSIVE SEARCH

Woman Seriously Injured Is Found By Husband Gagged And Bound In Hotel Room

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Police today were running down clues to capture the mysterious intruder who last night entered a downtown hotel and slugged Mrs. Jeanette Lantz over the head with a heavy weapon. She was seriously injured.

Mrs. Lantz and her husband, William Lantz, of Millbourne, Pa., are here to testify in the Burns-Sinclair contempt trial. She reported also that while they were absent on Tuesday their hotel room was ransacked, with clothes and papers strewn over the floor and bed.

Mrs. Lantz complained of feeling ill after yesterday's court session and went to her hoom to rest. After dinner Lantz came into the room and found his young wife bound hand and foot, and gagged with a towel. After recovering somewhat, Mrs. Lantz declared that a man in a gray hat and blue suit came into the room and without a word of warning, hit her on the head with a heavy weapon.

Lantz, although reluctant to talk of his connection with the contempt case, revealed that he was summoned as witness by the defense to attack the character of William J. McMullin, ex-Burns agent and later government spy. McMullin is a star witness for the government, having testified that he was forced by the Burns agency to sign a false affidavit about a Fall-Sinclair juror he was shadowing.

A search of the room revealed that one letter was missing. It was a note from Mrs. Lantz to her husband and contained references to McMullin.

Lantz said that McMullin formerly had helped him as a traffic officer in Millbourne.

Wants $20,000 For Injuries Received In Auto Accident

Matalena Fazzone Files Suit Against C. H. Eckenrod At Court House

Matalena Fazzone of Center street, has filed a suit at the Lawrence county prothonotary's office against C. H. Eckenrod of 113 Fairfield avenue, to recover $20,000 for personal injuries as the result of an automobile accident.

Plaintiff claims that on September 3, 1927, at about 9 p. m., she attempted to cross South Jefferson street, near Lawrence, when she was hit by the Eckenrod automobile, which knocked her down and passed over her legs.

She suffered a concussion of the brain and received injuries about her head, body and arms, besides suffering severe nervous shock. As a result of her injuries she was forced to expend large amounts for medical attention.

It is claimed that the automobile was being driven at a high rate of speed and that the driver did not sound his horn or give any warning of his approach. It is alleged that the accident was due to the careless operation of the machine.

Failure after a long perseverance is much grander than never to have a striving good enough to be called a failure.

The mother, Mrs. Lewis Cappelletti suffered burns about the face and hands in a vain effort to rescue the tot. She said she was in a barn, 60 feet from the house, when she heard her baby's agonized screams. She rushed back to the house but was unable to fight her way through the blaze. IF BACK HURTS FLUSH KIDNEYS

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulate them to their normal activity.

The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

This golf club of Dr. E. M. Parlette's has been the subject of a lot of jesting recently, too much so the dear doctor thinks. Every day at noon in the Leslie some wag has cracked wise at the expense of the doc and his aluminum club which somebody borrowed, but the coup de grace, the ne plus ultra and the last straw were added Wednesday.

As the doctor approached the table to inhale his usual lunch, Attorney Roy Jamison produced a box which looked as though it had a golf club in it. Turning loose a flow of golden words Mr. Jamison said that he was pleased beyond measure to replace the doctor's long lost golf club with one that was much better.

The light of appreciation illuminated Doc's face, and into his eyes crept a glint of forgiveness for the nasty cracks he had suffered. It seemed as though a peace pow wow were to obtain with Maurice MacLure and Bill Nunn in the role of the forgiven erring ones.

Carefully Doc opened the long box but instead of a $16 aluminum club there was another golf club, one of these pencil affairs with a mashie head on the eraser end. The forgiveness stuff is off, and when the miscreant is finally found and the club returned, Doc is going to recommend ninety days twice a month.

My friend George Jones is by way of being a philosopher. Also he is a mighty good locomotive engineer. Perhaps that's where he learned his philosophical trend. At any rate he was parked on Washington street yesterday and after watching a bevy of young lassies go by, all of whom had on sheer silk hose my friend Jones remarked, "you know it was in the eleventh century that stockings were first invented, in the reign of Richard the First, I believe." For a time he gazed off into space and then added, "but it was not until the twentieth century that we really got a good look at them."

Walter Kirker, the employment agent at the Y. M. C. A. has some information which may be valuable to machinists and layers out. Men of these trades may find it of interest to get in touch with him.

Saw a light in the Safe Deposit and Trust Building late last night and discovered Bernard Hanlon plugging away. These are twenty two hour days for Barney, for he has a long list of income taxe returns to fix up. And judging by the hours he keeps, the tax on his sleep is a heavy one. N. B. The incomes are not all his, they belong to other falks.

If its Clayton Reeves who is responsible you can give three cheers for him. At any rate it belongs to his department of city council. He had a couple of loads of ashes hauled on to Jefferson street yesterday morning, saving no end of motorists a fender or two.

Hope you have a ticket for tonight's banquet in the Scottish Rite Cathedral. National Commander Spafford of the American Legion has something to say, but unless you bought your ticket several days ago you won't get to hear it.

It was cold Wednesday. Mighty cold. The wind was blowing a gale out the Wilmington road and the snow seemed to cut with the fury of steel pellets. And I'm just wondering if those men who were digging holes along the road weren't mighty cold.

The students up at Westminster College are breathing a bit easier today or will be tonight. Mid-year examinations are over, or about over, and that air of tension that has held the campus in its grip for a week is beginning to loosen, the seniors are beginning to smile and the faculty members are getting back to a point where they can be human.
